

CITY'S FINANCIAL TANGLE TO RECEIVE ATTENTION AT THE MEETING TONIGHT

Problems So Perplexing That the Attorney General's Advice Has Been Asked.

The adjourned meeting of council, to be held tonight in conjunction with the board of public service, the board of public safety and the tax commission, will be one of the most important ever held by such bodies in the city. Everything that will come up for discussion and action is not known by any board or any person in the city. It is known, however, that a strenuous attempt is to be made to remedy the appalling conditions of the city's finances and to once more get the city on a new basis. Until this is done the newly elected boards, especially the board of public service, will not expend a penny, so its members say.

To have the exact conditions presented to the assemblage tonight would require the ability of a Wall Street financier. It seems that there is not another city in the entire United States that is so muddled. Most of the officials claim to understand the situation thoroughly, but when they are called on to give an explanation no two decisions are alike. All well realize the absolute necessity of action, but there are none that are satisfied as to how they should proceed.

There was a general hustle among the members of the several bodies this morning and dozens of confabs were had. The result was that some decided on one plan, some on another. There was but one way to determine which was right and Attorney General Sheets was applied to. It is expected that he will render a decision before the meeting convenes. On his decision will rest an important transaction of business, which it is hoped will relieve the city of the awful strain and place it on the desired footing.

A prominent official stated this morning that something must be done, and that right away, or before the expiration of three months the city will be in the hands of a receiver.

WILL BE TOLERATED NO LONGER

Street Fakirs Are to Be Denied the Privilege Of Operating Here.

Grafters and fakirs have been reaping a rich harvest lately along the principal thoroughfares of the city, but their season has come to a sudden end owing to the stand taken by Mayor Weaver, who declared today that no more licenses to this class of transients will be granted. This decision will be hailed with delight by the many who have encountered congested streets and other inconveniences caused by them. Saturday night there were probably more people on the streets than at any time during the year and there was congestion enough when the crowds kept moving.

At least four fakirs were doing business and of course many people were gathered about them causing temporary blockades. One was operating a gambling device. So many complaints have been heard that the members of the board of public service decided to demand that the streets be kept open. The merchants will be glad that these peddlers of cheap goods are to be shut out. There is nothing which they sell which is worth buying that cannot be had on better terms at the local stores. East Liverpool has long been noted as a paradise for fakirs, who willingly pay a small license fee for the privilege of gulling the credulous ones out of their hard-earned money.

given by Miss Lutheringer. Whoever he was the residents are positive he was desperate and experienced; otherwise he would not have been so persistent.

TRIED TO ROB

M'NICOL HOME

BURGLARY IS PREVENTED BY
NEIGHBORS' VIGILANCE.

Great Excitement on Fifth Street, But The Thief's Plans Were Frustrated.

Robbers attempted to force an entrance to the residence of D. E. McNicol on Fifth street last night, and would have succeeded in doing so had it not been for Miss Lutheringer, who gave the alarm.

Mr. McNicol is out of the city, and it is thought the burglars were aware of this fact and selected the McNicol home on that account. It was some time after midnight when Miss Lutheringer was awakened from a deep sleep by the sound of falling glass. The lady resides with the Cronin family, next door to the McNicol home, and the window of her rooms looks out upon the yard. She made her way cautiously to the window and looking out saw a man busily engaged in an attempt to force upon a window on the east side of the McNicol residence. Miss Lutheringer was able to get a good view of the robber, who is described as a burly ruffian, above the average height and wearing a dark hat and clothes. She was badly frightened, but managed to make her way quietly and rapidly to an electrical appliance connecting the two houses, where she gave the alarm to the McNicols.

In a remarkably short time the wild excitement reigned in both households, and in the din the burglar escaped by running to the rear of the lot and climbing the fence. When quiet was once more restored and the families had returned to bed, the marauder again made his appearance in the neighborhood. It is certain that he was the same man, as no two could answer so perfectly to the description

FAST DRIVING

WILL BE STOPPED

Chief Wyman Orders the Arrest of All Persons Driving Fast or Recklessly.

Chief Wyman has decided to rigidly enforce the city ordinance providing for the driving of horses on the streets. During the past few days he has received numerous complaints from the public and he announces that any and all violators of the ordinance will be arrested. The practice of horse racing and fast driving has been indulged in for a long time and the chief says emphatically that it must stop. Fourth and Fifth streets are taken generally by the law violators and the police have been ordered to watch the two thoroughfares closely. The ordinance prohibiting such driving is as follows:

"No person shall ride or drive any horse or horses or other animal in a reckless, fast or dangerous manner, or in such a manner as to endanger any person by driving at a rate of speed exceeding six miles per hour upon any street, public square or highway in this city, or cross any street crossing faster than a walk."

The chief will not enforce the latter part of the ordinance, providing for the street crossing, but will demand drivers to slacken up when a crossing is approached.

Oldest Motorman Quits.

Henry Moore, the oldest motorman on the East Liverpool railway in point of service, has tendered his resignation to the company to take a situation with a Pittsburgh contracting firm. Mr. Moore was a valued employee and the company and other employees are sorry to hear of his determination.

DUVALL CARRIED JEFFERSON COUNTY

Won a Signal Triumph at the Primaries
Held on Saturday.

Columbus, May 18.—(Special).—The friends of Hon. M. N. Duvall at the state capital received word Saturday night that he had triumphed over his opponent, Justin A. Moore, for senator, at the primary election held in Jefferson county Saturday. As the unit rule prevails Mr. Duvall will name all the senatorial delegates of the county.

His success is all the more notable when it is considered he was fought by the powerful organization of Congressman Gill.

A SCARED HORSE MAKES WILD RUN

After Throwing Occupants From the Buggy Dashes Down
Into the River.

DEATH NARROWLY ESCAPED

While hundreds of people were thronging Sixth street at about 10.30 o'clock Saturday night, excitement prevailed for a short time when a horse attached to a buggy in which were riding Harry Miller, a kilndrawer, of the East End, and Miss Maud Tucker, California Hollow, became frightened and dashed madly up the thoroughfare.

What caused the animal's scare is not known, but it is supposed to have become excited at the sight of an automobile. It started on the wild run at a point near Diamond alley, plunging suddenly forward at a breakneck speed. Its first lunge unseated Miller and he was thrown violently to the bricks. He, however, held tightly to the reins for a moment, but was compelled to release his grasp after being dragged for quite a distance. A number of spectators directed their attention to the fallen man but the great crowd thought only of the awful predicament of Miss Tucker on a dead run, the hundreds followed the horse. When the animal reached Washington street it was going so fast that when it attempted to make the turn to go down Broadway the buggy was wrenched so fiercely that the king bolt was broken and the front wheels were jerked from the bed, throwing Miss Tucker with terrible force a distance of about 20 feet into a pile of broken dishes lying on the pavement in front of the D. E. McNicol pottery.

In terror the young lady screamed and the motley crowd was frantic by the time they reached her side. She was lying on the dishes, apparently stunned and suffering from terrible injuries. Officer Morris was on the scene and rushing to her side assisted her to her feet and together with others walked her down to the office of Dr. Norris, who upon an examination pronounced her injuries slight and stated that she was suffering more from fright than injuries.

Miller, upon finding that the young lady was practically unharmed, went down Broadway to find the horse and was much surprised at finding that the animal had rushed headlong into the river. He experienced some trouble in getting the horse out, but found that it had escaped unhurt. The buggy was badly used up, but the damage was not enormous. The horse and buggy belong to the East End livery.

The crowds that witnessed the exciting runaway deem it one of the most marvelous happenings that they ever saw. None can understand how the occupants escaped death when thrown so violently from the rig.

Arranged for Charter.

There was an important meeting of the Federal Labor Council Saturday evening, attended by a large number of members. Arrangements were made to secure a charter and other necessary steps toward a permanent organization were taken. Another meeting will be held Saturday night of this week, and all laboring men, not members of local unions, are invited to be present.

ANOTHER BOARD MUST BE NAMED

Assessment on Pennsylvania Avenue Will Have to Be Gone Over Again.

TECHNICAL ERROR FOUND

Which Invalidates the Work of the Former Board—Tax Levy Question to Come Up for Councilmanic Consideration.

Through the discovery of a technical error in the report of the board that made the assessment on the Pennsylvania avenue improvement, it has been decided that council at its meeting tonight must appoint another board, and thereby throw another $20 on the taxpayers. On the day following the last meeting of council it will be remembered that City Solicitor Davidson made the statement that it would not be necessary for council to appoint another assessing board.

The statement was made while in ignorance of the validity of the report that was accepted by council and on which the equalization board, whose report was turned down, based their equalizations. Solicitor Davidson, upon making an examination of the report, decides it was not compiled according to law and backs the decision by reference to a similar case on which the supreme court ruled. According to the code the report of an assessing board once approved and accepted does away with the appointing of any other assessing board.

The technicality lies in the fact that the board failed to designate in proper manner how it had made the assessment. The report was compiled and submitted by the following persons: A. W. King, J. H. Rigby and William Kent. The report was taken in 1901 and accepted February 11, 1902, and was as follows: "Your committee, appointed for the special purpose of making assessment benefits on property described in a resolution as passed by your honorable body under date of 1901, and known as ordinance 664 for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, take pleasure in herewith submitting our report in original form. Trusting the results of our labor may meet your full approval, we are respectfully, etc."

The report is not full and not complete, and as none of the benefited property holders could be made to pay an assessment until it is compiled according to law, council will be compelled to at first appoint another board and later on appoint the equalization board.

Among other numerous things to be acted upon at the meeting tonight will be for council to make the regular annual tax levy. This will no doubt consume much time. The levy for the present fiscal year will be greater than ever before. The code provides that council can levy 10 mills for the general running expenses and can levy whatever amount it deems fit for the keeping up of the library, park and interest funds. Heretofore it could levy only 10 mills. That the body can make the additional levy will assist materially in running the expenses without being compelled to borrow.

A LOT OF MEAT

CARRIED OFF

Thieves Robbed the Armour & Co.
Store House of Over $100 Worth.

The storage house of Armour & Co., foot of Union street, was robbed of cured meat, lard and other provisions on Friday night. It is estimated that the goods taken were worth $100 or more.

The robbers broke in the side door in the alley and evidently removed their booty in a wagon. No clue is yet reported.

LOOKING FOR THIEV'S

Proprietor of Round Knob Saw Mill
In Quest of Pilferers.

C. W. Carnahan, proprietor of a saw mill, located near Round Knob, accompanied by Constable Cameron, applied at the city hall this afternoon and stated that they were on the search for a man who had stolen a lot of valuable equipment from the saw mill. They have a suspicion of who the guilty party is and will likely arrest him before evening.

AN ALLEGED JOKE LED TO TROUBLE

Man on Whom Seltzer Was Squirted Could Not See
the Fun.

D. W. Mort was a visitor at the city hall this afternoon. His face was badly disfigured as the result of a fight in a West Market street saloon. Dr. Ogden was called and patched the wound. Mort claims that he was in the saloon taking a friendly drink with another man, when the latter took a seltzer bottle and squirted the contents on his face.

A moment later Mort reciprocated by throwing a glass of beer in his friend's face and a fight ensued, in which Mort got decidedly the worst of it.

COLLISION OF CARS CAUSED BAD WRECK

Four Freight Cars Were Rendered
Useless And Other Property Damaged.

A bad freight wreck occurred in the lower freight yards yesterday afternoon, and as a result considerable property was destroyed and through traffic was delayed for some time.

The pony shifter was hauling a long string of cars near the old glass house switch, and a box car loaded with flint sidwiped a number of loaded cars which stood on a switch running parallel with the main line. When the collision occurred the end of the cars were lifted clear off the tracks and were completely demolished. The car of flint was leaning in a dangerous manner when the train was brought to a standstill.

None of the crew was on the end of the train of 20 cars, and this probably accounts for the accident, as no one could see the close proximity of the other train. The moving car grated against three flat cars before it collided with the heavily laden box car and was stopped. In all four cars were so badly damaged that they will not be fit for operation.

The wreck train was immediately sent for at Wellsville and arrived at about 4:20. Over an hour was consumed in clearing the tracks so that traffic could be resumed. The passenger train due here at 4 o'clock was delayed over an hour by the wreck. The collision occurred just west of the flint mill at a point where the wrecked car was thrown across the main track, stopping traffic completely.

UNWILLING TO ACT AT THE EXECUTION OF CONDEMNED MEN

Rather Than Pull the Lever That Causes Electrocution Warden Darby Resigns.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The resignation of William A. Darby, as warden of the Ohio penitentiary, was unexpected and caused surprise. His reason for resigning were given in these words: "The fact that I had to move the lever in electrocuting criminals has worried me more than I can stand, and I resolved I would never take part in another electrocution."

Three murderers have been ushered into eternity during Mr. Darby's administration—Farrell, of Steubenville; Ruthven, of Cleveland, and Gardner, of nowhere. The first shot down his friend in cold blood; the second, burglar and outlaw, killed a policeman, and the last brutally assaulted and murdered a little girl. It was Warden Darby's hand which released the deadly current which sent each of these into the spirit world and since their faces have haunted him in his dreams.

Had not Governor Nash commuted the death sentence in the case of Leonard Quaint, of this city, last week, Darby's resignation would have been given earlier. He will retire June 15. He has not decided what he will do but is meditating returning to his old home at St. Clairsville, Belmont county, where he may engage in business. He was sheriff of Belmont county up until a short time before his appointment as warden. Mr. Darby is one of the most popular and efficient wardens the penitentiary has ever had. The office pays $2,400 a year.

Warden Darby is not the only Belmont county man who has turned aside from a political job paying that compensation. About two weeks ago Attorney Mitchell, of St. Clairsville, Belmont county, refused a tender of the position of chief inspector of building and loan associations, which pays $2,400 a year, although urged to accept by Governor Nash.

VICIOUSLY ATTACKED HIS MOTHER

An East End Lad Wanted by the Police For a Brutal Assault.

Upon the serious charges of murderously assaulting his mother, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demmerling, of Sandy Bottom, East End, will be arrested by Officer Fisher and arraigned before Mayor Weaver this evening. The officer was detailed on the case at noon and had every assurance that he would locate the boy.

Mrs. Demmerling reported the affair to Chief Wyman from the East End fire station this morning. While relating the story she became quite emotional and it was with difficulty that the chief heard what she said. As near as could be learned the boy got mad without reason, picked up a dish and threw it at his mother, striking her on the arm and cutting a terrible gash. After this act of violence he sprang at her with his fists and pummeled her in a dreadful manner. She was bruised on many parts of her body and being in a critical condition before the assault it is thought probable that the blows might result very seriously.

It is said that the family has had trouble before and that the boy is not the only one that has acted so disgracefully.

DIVORCE SUIT ENTERED

Against An Oil Man Who Is Said to Be a Fugitive From Justice.

Steuenville, May 18.—Another echo of the Goodlin-Teeters case came to light in the courts Saturday when Olin Kennedy, of Cadiz, wife of James C. Kennedy, entered suit for divorce from her husband, James C. Kennedy.

Kennedy is the oil man who was wanted by the grand jury that indicted Dr. Teeters. Kennedy, it was thought, knew more about the matter than any other person at that time, but before service could be gotten on him, left Knoxville. When the grand jury completed its labors Kennedy returned to the Knoxville oil field. It was Kennedy who was the much talked of friend of Miss Goodlin, as he had represented himself to be a single man, and had won her affections. For that reason he was wanted by the prosecutor. The wife charges unfaithfulness and says Kennedy left the state to avoid arrest.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

HONORABLE CAREERS.

The Wheeling News makes the following comment concerning two well known and high officials of the Brotherhood:

President Thomas J. Duffy has had a brilliant career in trades unionism. He is still in his twenties, having been born in England in 1877. With his parents, who had long been connected with the pottery industry in the old country, he came to Wheeling in 1885 and received his education in the common schools of this city and at the Wheeling Business college. He did his first work in a pottery in 1885, securing employment at the North Wheeling pottery, and later was employed at the LaBelle and Warwick potteries. He joined Wheeling local No. 6 in September, 1892, and in turn occupied the positions of financial secretary and president, and for a number of years represented his local in the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, of which he was in turn elected secretary and president. In 1899, at the Trenton convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters he was elected national secretary, a position he has filled to the greatest satisfaction of the membership and fellow officers. Since filling this position Mr. Duffy has been a resident of East Liverpool, where, by the way, he has achieved considerable prominence in politics, having been nominated for congress in the Eleventh district in 1902 on the Democratic and Labor tickets. Through a technicality in the Ohio law he was unable to accept both nominations and concluded to decline the Democratic nomination. The district is overwhelmingly Republican, and as a matter of course the nominee of that party was elected by a large majority, but the strength shown by Mr. Duffy was surprisingly great, and it is said he will be the next Democratic candidate, when he hopes to be able to cut down very materially, if not wipe out, the enormous Republican majority.

Harry Hailes is one of the most prominent and popular of the labor leaders of this community, a fact that has been attested by his election as president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, a position of many difficulties, which he filled with the greatest ability and discretion. Mr. Hailes stands very high in the estimation of the people of Wheeling.

BEAUTIFUL CREATIONS.

Many of the newest shapes in cups are simply delightful in the variety and beauty of their decoration. In shape, too, they are very attractive, one with a flaring edge and standard bottom being especially pretty. For small afternoon teas these small flaring tea-cups are now used for tea, coffee, chocolate or bouillon, instead of the small after-dinner coffee cup, the big chocolate or two-handled bouillon cup used formerly.

Many of the larger vases and bowl shaped pieces, with their beautiful greens and browns, are bought eagerly for use as pottery lamps, for which there is such a craze at present. For decorative purposes the beautiful metallic lustres, dull yellows and grays of the smaller vases are unexceptional. Large and varying lengths of tea-cups, some of the pieces make them admirable flower holders.

Ten pottery, one of the very best of Japanese patterns, is especially appropriate for flower holders or decorative pieces. This comes in subdued tones of gray, brown and green and is splendid in form and decoration. The ornamentation of one very attractive jar consists of a few bare branches of swollen buds, one or two having burst into bloom, of the same tint as the surface, but standing out from it in relief. This jar has no crackle, but has a smooth glaze; another has a very distinct glaze, with a conventionalized outline of a heron for decoration.

GUARANTEED BY WILL REED

Hymel the Only Cure for Catarrh Which Returns Your Money If Not Satisfactory.

It is seldom that a druggist has enough faith in a medicine he sells even when prepared by himself, to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure; but Hymel has cured so many cases of catarrh among the customers of Will Reed that he offers to refund the money to all who use it and report that they are not satisfied.

Hymel is the simplest and most convenient remedy for catarrh ever offered to the public. Breathed through an inhaler so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, for a few minutes four times a day, it will absolutely kill all the germs of catarrh and cure the disease.

Catarrh cannot exist where Hymel is used. It has a two-fold action, killing all the germs in the air passages and lungs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Many of the prominent men and women of the country have gladly given testimonials to Hymel. After seeking relief in vain for years, this wonderful remedy has cured them of catarrh, and it is no wonder that they want others to know it.

Rev. Dr. Stryker, of the 34th street church, New York city, writes: "Hymel gives wonderful relief in catarrh when other remedies have failed. It has been of great service to me."

If you have catarrh, accept Will Reed's proposition and use Hymel.

ENTERING UPON HIS 35TH YEAR

Another Milestone Passed by Dr. Taggart in His Long Pastorate.

AN APPROPRIATE SERMON

Prefaced By a Brief Review of the Growth and Development of the Church — A Large Congregation Present at the Services.

In commemoration of the thirty-fourth anniversary of his pastorate, Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, preached a most beautiful and impressive sermon to a large congregation yesterday morning. Though it had been expected that the able minister would devote the greater part of the service to a review of his long pastorate, he applied himself mostly to the theme, "Love for God's House."

The text was peculiarly fitting to the occasion. In all the years that he has administered to the spiritual needs of the congregation, which is one of the largest of this denomination in the United States, Dr. Taggart has cherished such a love in his heart, and it has been strengthened by steadfast and untiring work for the Master, whom he has served so well. Only modest references were made to his enviable career as a minister, but a strong emotion was apparent.

Both the minister and the congregation are to be congratulated over having such an occasion to commemorate, as such a long association is most unusual. It is a compliment to the minister that needs no comment.

Dr. Taggart preached his first sermon to the congregation of the United Presbyterian church yesterday 34 years ago, and now that the summit has been reached, the time has not seemed long. For the work and good that has been accomplished the thanks are returned to God, and the prayer was uttered that strength be given for the coming years.

God had his dwelling place in the tabernacle and manifested himself there. He delights to meet with his people in the places they have built and consecrated to Him and true believers love the habitation and those who build together in the spirit. The man who does not love the church, does not love Christ and the minister has but little respect for, or confidence in, the church tramps who go about from one sanctuary to another, altering their belief to fit the occasion.

The true Christian loves the church and its congregation and has a concern for the welfare of all of God's people. Any professed love for God that does not include the church and its people is of little worth. The true Christian never forgets his relation to the church and is constantly seeking the peace and prosperity of the congregation with which he is identified.

The proper love for God's house means a prompt and regular attendance at church meetings and participation in church work, and it will be manifested in sympathy and self-denial for the church. Looking backward over the years of his pastorate, the minister feels confident that he has met the requirements in devotion to God's house. Looking over the congregation he could see a few of those who had been present when he first preached in the church, but the most of them have passed away. He has many comforting memories of the loyal company of worshippers, dwindled now by the passing of years.

During the 34 years the attendance of the congregation at the service has been as full and regular as any other church similarly situated. Not all have proved as faithful as could be desired, and it has been a source of sorrow to the pastor and weakening to the congregation. The speaker made an earnest appeal for a renewal of the love for the house of God and pointed out the blessings and help that can be enjoyed only by those who dwell there.

In reviewing the years of his pastorate, Dr. Taggart gave many interesting figures and statistics, covering the growth in membership, the number of deaths and births among the congregation, the actual work of the minister and other matters of moment.

Another way to manifest the love of God's house is by generously contributing to its maintenance and toward the extension of the mission field of the church. The members of the congregation have been most liberal in this respect.

The members of the congregation greatly enjoyed the service, and it is the earnest prayer of all that many more such anniversaries will be celebrated.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ANNIVERSARY

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF THE SOCIETY'S WORK.

Installation of Officers And Other Interesting Exercises at First M. E. Church.

Special Epworth League services were conducted at the First M. E. church last night. The edifice was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, together with emblems of the society and the national colors.

After the meeting had been opened by the singing of a beautiful anthem, the retiring president, Thomas T. McCann, was introduced and gave a graphic and interesting history of the local society during the past year. The speaker took up the league work in its separate departments and reviewed the work of each in an interesting manner. The excellent work of the individuals at the head of these six branches was touched upon. The spiritual department had been in charge of Miss Ada Shaffer nearly all of the year, though Mr. Blount had rendered valuable assistance.

Mrs. Ara Hawkins had succeeded splendidly with the mercy and help department, and had originated many new ideas of a practical nature into the league's work.

The important literary work was in the hands of Mrs. R. W. Haines, and had prospered wonderfully under her careful guidance.

The social department was looked after by Miss Bella Bucher. All of the social entertainments conducted throughout the year had been under her direction and had all been successful.

Floyd Alles had carefully cared for the department of correspondence, and the record of his work showed that the society had increased its membership 56 during the year. The membership now numbers 352.

E. H. Craven, who conducted the financial welfare of the league, made a report as follows: Cash on hand May 1, 1902, $66.99; receipts during year, $88.09; total, $155.08; expenditures during year, $119.91; balance in treasury, $35.17.

The Junior League was more successful this past year than for some time, and Mrs. Henry Goodwin, who conducted it, has devoted much time to the work, for which great credit is due.

Rev. Dr. Pratt then installed the following newly elected officers: President, Arthur W. Savage; first vice president, Mrs. A. W. Savage; second vice president, Mrs. Ara Hawkins; third vice president, Miss Lena Howard; fourth vice president, Floyd Alles; secretary, Lawrence Patterson; treasurer, Moses Epley.

Dr. Pratt consumed the remainder of the time in an interesting and appropriate address. His remarks were calculated to be of great benefit to the new administration.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

From the Story Told By Daniel Rev. J. G. Reinartz Draws an Interesting Lesson.

"Belshazzar's Feast, or the Doom of Sacrilege," was the subject of Rev. J. G. Reinartz's sermon at the Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. The pastor took up the story so vividly told by Daniel and his illustrations and arguments were so forceful and eloquent that the large congregation was deeply impressed. He closed by saying:

"When a church has right principles and is steadfast to them, no matter what forces are arrayed against it, it will have true success. It will be dear to Christians, precious to those who love Him, a safe guide of sinners to the Savior, and will build up saints on their most holy faith. It will be a conservator of sound doctrine, of healthy discipline. It may not be fashionable, rich or popular, (truth never was popular), but it will be a blessing to the world and a nursery for heaven."

Interesting Services.

Services were unusually interesting at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Last evening Rev. C. G. Jordan preached on the subject, "Be Ye Perfect as I Am Perfect." The pastor covered the subject in its every phase, and the large congregation was delighted with the sermon. Mrs. Baird of Seattle, Wash., a sister of Prof. Laughlin, sang "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," in a charming manner. Mrs. Baird is a talented singer and possesses a voice of rare sweetness.

ALVIN GREER HAS A SERIOUS MISHAP

Internally Injured Yesterday While Swinging on Grape Vines and May Die.

Alvin Greer, a 16-year-old boy, living with his parents in Calhoun's addition, was probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon, while playing with some companions along the river bank near the state line. Young Greer and a number of companions were enjoying themselves in the woods and one of their favorite amusements was to employ the wild grape vines that cling to the trees as swings. They had been having a great deal of fun in this way and all were on the lookout for vines that promised a longer swing. Finally young Greer found one clinging to the limbs of a huge tree at the edge of the river bank. Without stopping to test its strength he swung out over the steeply sloping bank.

The lad uttered a cry of delight as he sped through space and felt the exhilaration of his ride and the cry was echoed by his companions who were looking on in wonderment. But in another moment they were horrified to see the vine, when it had reached the farthest point, give way and precipitate its human freight to the ground, a distance of at least 30 feet. The lad struck the ground face downward and was rendered unconscious. Beneath him was a large stone which had struck him across the abdomen. When his companions reached the side of the injured lad blood was issuing from his mouth and it was apparent to them that his injuries were serious. Physicians were summoned, of whom Dr. Henderson was the first to arrive, and he directed that the lad be removed to his home. Later a thorough examination was made by three physicians, which revealed internal injuries of a very grave nature. During last night his suffering was intense and today his condition is little if any improved.

Noted Missionaries to Speak.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church has arranged for a special service for next Wednesday night to take the place of the regular prayer meeting. Part of the program has been arranged and further announcement will be made tomorrow. Both have had a wide experience in their respective fields and are interesting talkers.

Improving the Crossing.

A sure way to prevent many of the runaway accidents so numerous in East Liverpool would be to see that the streets are kept free from waste paper. A sheet of paper, blown about the streets, may look harmless enough to a man, but in a horse it inspires more terror than a savage wild beast.

The total capitalization of new large concerns incorporated in the United States is at the rate of $187,000,000 a month, against $207,000,000 a month in 1902 and $500,000,000 a month in 1901. There is as much prosperity as ever, but water is scarcer.

TULLOCH'S LETTER MADE PUBLIC

Charges of Irregularities in Postoffice Affairs Embodied in Letter to Postmaster General.

Washington, May 18.—The full text of the formal charges of irregularities in the administration of the postal affairs preferred by Seymour W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, is made public by Mr. Tulloch. The charges are embodied in a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to the latter's request to be furnished any information that would substantiate published statements of Mr. Tulloch. Some of the matters complained of will be investigated immediately by the inspectors.

Mr. Tulloch in his letter says he is at the service of the postmaster general in rendering any further assistance that may be desired. Mr. Tulloch says that in all instances of irregularity and favoritism the proper allowances, records, vouchers, etc., were most carefully executed and kept, as a rule, and little information can be ascertained by their investigation; that the real facts behind the allowances and vouchers are not of record and are known to few—"those interested, who will not, and others, clerks, who dare not talk."

"For upwards of 19 years," the letter recites, "the conduct of affairs between the Washington city postoffice and the postoffice department was regular; then came the first break, the precursor of a system of allowances which afterwards led to irregularities, abuses, extravagance and my removal as an obstacle on June 30, 1899."

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure catarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

A WISE PHILANTHROPY

Which Offers a Certain Solution of the Great Problem of Intemperance.

One of the wisest philanthropies of this age of strenuous and continual nerve depletion has recently been announced to the public, and it offers a unique solution to the urgent sociological problem of intemperance. Now that medical science has clearly demonstrated that alcohol and drug addiction are diseases, it is clearly logical that they must be fought by medical means. There is a successful treatment, which has been known to the medical profession of New York city for ten years, which not only quickly relieves the imperious craving for a stimulant, but also has the advantage of toning the nervous system to its normal condition without any injury to the patient, without the use of hypodermic injections and in most cases without interfering seriously with the patient's daily occupation. This treatment of the Oppenheimer Institute is already known to the public through the remarkable array of prominent American men and women who are associated with the new movement to spread its benefits to every part of this land, planting branches in nearly every state of the Union. The Pittsburgh branch is located at 110 West North Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

In order to do the greatest good to the greatest number of unfortunate victims of drink and drug addiction, the directors of this movement are working toward the ultimate purpose of so equipping the institute that it will never be necessary for any patient applying for treatment anywhere in this country to be turned away on account of poverty or financial embarrassment. To this end a Department of Charities has been established in connection with the Institute and Rev. Dr. J. E. Price, one of the founders of the Epworth League, and for five years Dean of Ocean Grove Summer School of Theology, has left a large pastorate in Yonkers, N. Y., to take charge of this work as director of charities.

To aid in the work there has been organized a Women's National Auxiliary of the Oppenheimer Institute, of which Mrs. Dunlop-Hopkins, founder of the American Institute of Applied Design for Women, is president, and Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, one of the founders of the National Order of Kings' Daughters, is the vice president and secretary.

The specific objects of this auxiliary are to spread the knowledge of the institute to all classes and to all sections of the United States and of the world.

Spring fever—that is, the feeling of languor, out-of-sorts sensation, indicates a lack of vital force. It also indicates the need of Hage's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil, a spring tonic that puts vigorous activity—life—energy into every fibre, nerve and muscle. Agreeable to take. Contains no grease.

WELLSVILLE

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR WELLSVILLE

EAST LIVERPOOL A. C. SUFFERS SECOND DEFEAT.

A Most Interesting Game Which Came Near Shutting Out One Side.

Again the East Liverpool Athletic club team went down to defeat before the Wellsville boys by a score of 7 to 1. It would have been a shutout if Webb had taken a little time and thrown to first, so Heckathorn could have at least touched him.

The second inning ended with the score 2 to 1 in favor of Wellsville. In the third, fourth and fifth the home team failed to score, but succeeded in getting two singles. Lang making both of them. Heckathorn made a sensational home run in the sixth. In the seventh Wellsville added one more run. The eighth proved to be a big inning, three runs being scored.

The visitors played hard and put up a stiff fight, but they could do nothing. The game was the most interesting that has been played here this season. The majority of the crowd were rooting for the home team, which no doubt helped to win the victory.

MORE YARD ROOM

Cleveland & Pittsburg Purchases Lots. Opposition to New Tracks.

The Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad company is still buying land in the West End for the enlargement of its yards. Last week three more lots were purchased in the Smith & Michaels addition.

Near the Vulcan brick works Contractor Stringer has a large force of men and teams busy filling in and grading for the immediate laying of tracks. Work has not rightly begun near Eighteenth street, but when it does there will be trouble for the citizens of Nevada street, as those on the eastern side are determined to keep the company from laying any more tracks across that street. A petition is being circulated to present to council to forbid the company adding more tracks.

CHILD SCALDED

Partially Upset a Boiler of Hot Water in Its Mother's Absence.

Vernie, the 13-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fulton, of Commerce street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, had a narrow escape from being scalded to death Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Fulton was preparing to wash and had a tub filled with boiling water on a chair in the kitchen. When she stepped out to get cold water the child went out into the kitchen and tried to upset the tub. Some water splashed out and scalded the child's left hand and arm, both limbs and about the abdomen. The child's screams brought the mother. Dr. Holland was at once called and made the little sufferer as comfortable as possible.

K. of C. Banquet.

Council No. 507, Knights of Columbus, held its annual banquet in the city hall Saturday evening. An interesting program of music and recitation.

RAIDED A RESORT IN THE WEST END

OTHERWISE POLICE BUSINESS WOULD HAVE BEEN DULL.

Mrs. McIntosh And Several Visitors Placed Under Arrest Yesterday.

The police department came dangerously near drawing a blank Saturday night. It was the old reliable West End that saved them. That section of the city is always good for a pull and when business is dull it can be counted on for some action. Like Trojans the officers made a heroic charge, and it is always dollars to doughnuts that they will come out of the shuffle with a full hand. While the entire force was brooding over the empty appearance of the jail corridors one of them was struck suddenly with a thought of Jethro Hollow, and in a moment's time the faces of all brightened. They knew the gloom around the city hall was about to be broken.

Chief Wyman and Officers Auderheide, Dunn and Mahoney were designated to do the work. They determined upon the well known resort of Lou McIntosh, possibly 300 yards from the Jethro bridge, and with stealth the quartet approached the house. They encountered no difficulty whatever in gaining admittance, except that Chief Wyman got a scratched eye in making his way through some underbrush. He was not very dead this morning, notwithstanding a report of a morning publication. Upon entering the dive the officers found the proprietress, Mrs. McIntosh, and seven loiterers, who gave their names as follows: Mademoiselles Flora William and Clara Mitchell; Ernest Howard, Samuel McFadden, Harry Wayne and Ernest Mitchell. The entire bunch placed forfeit money and will likely turn up for a hearing this evening. The proprietress will get probably the minimum, which is $10 and costs, and the loiterers $5 and costs.

There were two other arrests made, both of them last evening. Charles Mercer was landed by Officer McDermott. He was drunk and was endeavoring to get to his home in Chester when taken. His fine was $2 and costs.

Charles Brown, arrested by Officer Morris, had the pleasure of paying $4 because he accidentally fell asleep. He maintained that booze was not the primary cause of the sudden grasp of Morpheus, and was very indignant when a fine was imposed.

A lad giving his name as Dave Carr applied at the city hall last evening for sleeping quarters. In reply to a question as to his age he said he did not know, but said he was sure that he was six years old four years ago. He was given a night's lodging and was turned over to the township trustees this morning. His home is in Brilliant.

the police force obliterated, the firemen cut off, and all other necessities eliminated. There is a plan decided upon by the board of public service which, if it terminates well, will place things in good shape but if it fails a calamity is certain. The assurance is given by the board of public service that once the city is on its feet it will at least stay there until the present board passes out of existence. It has been positively determined to spend money only when it is in the treasury for that purpose. The board knows that by doing so the city will never become bankrupt or in such conditions as are now apparent.

The only relief is a bond issue covering the entire indebtedness and the matter will be acted upon in accordance with conservative consideration taken by the members of the several bodies.

CAUSED BY JEALOUSY

Couple Quarrel and Woman Is Killed and Mother Fired Upon.

LOVER SUICIDES BESIDE VICTIM

Murderer Calls on Brother and Tells of Crime and Intentions, but Little Attention Is Paid to Story—Recently Released from Penitentiary.

Johnstown, Pa., May 18.—A tragedy, caused by jealousy, and resulting in the loss of two lives, was enacted at Bairdstown, a little village in Westmoreland county.

The dead: Albert Palmer, aged 31 years. Mollie Beck, aged 30 years. About 3 o'clock in the morning the neighborhood was aroused by the shrieks and cries of several women. Those who appeared on the scene witnessed an awful sight. In the rear room of the house in which the affair occurred lay the bodies of the persons named—the woman with a bullet hole through her heart and the man shot in the middle of the breast.

Palmer had been paying attention to the young woman for a couple of months and a number of times demanded that she marry him and that she quit keeping company with other men. Each time she refused. This was the cause of a number of bitter quarrels between them.

The mother of the woman says Palmer and the dead woman were on the porch and finally quarreled. They became so violent she started out to interfere. Just as she was about to step on the back porch Palmer drew his pistol and fired. Miss Beck falling to the floor dead. Mrs. Beck made a step toward Palmer, when he pointed the pistol at her and fired. The bullet just grazing her head and entering the wall of the room where she stood. He then left the house and went to the home of a brother, who lived but a short distance away and whom he awakened, telling him of what he had done and asking him to go along to the house of Mrs. Beck, adding that he intended to kill himself. The brother paid but little attention to what was told him, not even when the murderer bade him a tearful farewell and asked him to say goodbye to their parents, brothers and sisters.

Palmer then returned to the house where the girl was lying dead and dragged her body into the back room. He then laid down on the floor, placed the revolver to his breast and fired, the ball entering a point in the center of the chest and causing instant death. In this position the two bodies lay until an inquest was held.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health.

One of the chief causes of that "Always tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly,

LODGES OF THIS COUNTY

Well to the Front in Increased Membership and Other Evidences of Prosperity—Interesting Statistics From Reports of the Grand Officers.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The Grand Lodge of Ohio, I. O. O. F., will convene in session at Ironton at 10 a. m. tomorrow. The sessions will last five days. Last year's meeting was held at Marion. The recently elected grand lodge officers will be inducted into office on Friday by the retiring grand master, J. M. Bever, of Columbus. They are as follows: Grand master, C. C. Pavey, Washington, C. H.; deputy grand master, E. C. Boyce, Cincinnati; grand warden, Isaac M. Warden, Chillicothe; grand secretary, C. H. Lyman, Pomeroy; grand treasurer, Charles E. Niles, Findlay; grand representative, Ivor Hughes, Columbus.

The past year has been one of great prosperity for the order in Ohio, the gain in membership being almost 2,300, which is greater than that of any recent year. Reports filed show that the total membership on December 31, 1902, was 70,429, which later increases, it is believed, has swelled to fully 72,000. During 1902 the number of members relieved was 252 less than in 1901, the number of weeks' benefits decreased $6,541, all pointing to a satisfactory condition of the order throughout the state. Grand Master Bever says that the order is on a more substantial financial basis and upon a higher plane morally, than ever before. In the five largest cities, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus and Dayton, where the order has sustained small losses during the past few years, there is a net gain of 138 for 1902. Akron, Youngstown, Canton and Springfield show a net gain of 72. Springfield shows a loss

WESTINGHOUSE PLAYED GOOD BALL

They Tried Hard But Lost to Local Y. M. C. A.'s by Score of 3 to 1.

CAPT. REARK SUCCESSFUL

In His Debut and Assurance is Given of Continuous Repetition Throughout the Season—The Strong Canton Marines Booked for a Series.

The Y. M. C. A.'s, under the captaincy of "Chick" Reark, played as nice a game as one would wish to see in West End park, Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the Westinghouse Athletic club by a score of 3 to 1. It was a game that installed interest in the fans at the very offset and throughout the nine innings enthusiasm was not abated.

It had been predicted that base ball would be dead in the city for a few weeks as a result of the exhibition the week before, but such was proven untrue when nearly 500 people filed through the turnstiles and filled the grand stand until there was not room for another person. The renewed interest rests solely on the wise choice of the management in selecting Reark as captain. Every one knows that a game in which he figures will be first class and they take delight in showing their appreciation of the fact. He did not have the lineup he intended, but made up the team with substitutes and they made a pretty showing.

"Happy" Reark, brother of the captain, hid his face in a mask and called "Play ball" at 4 o'clock sharp. He umpired a fair game and neither team had cause for objections. It is likely that he will play the position, through out the summer.

For three innings the teams seldom succeeded in reaching second base, only two getting as far as third. One of them was Wallace, when he landed one near the garden patch for a three bager. In the fourth inning the game was started in earnest. Ferguson for the visitors was blind and went out on three shoves at the wind. J. Chambers knocked a hard one down to Gibson, who fumbled and allowed the runner to reach first. Chambers placed a fly in the hands of Reilly making two outs and only one man on base.

Ravey did the work. He hit the ball about as hard as a man could and it went bounding through the outfield like a scared hound. Reark and Reilly were both after it, but the latter stopped and the play following was the feature of the game. Ravey was running with the wind, made the three bases clean, was so jubilant over the awful lick that he lost his head and made a desperate attempt to have it a home run. When he reached the goal he had the ball and applied the bug in great shape. Reark had fielded it, threw it to Reilly, who let Davis have it and the play was complete when Peiper did his work.

This was the initial and last run for the Pennsylvania lads. They were out in one, two, three order thereafter, notwithstanding that they piled up four more hits.

The locals won the game in the last half of the fourth. And it was done by a play of Winters, who repeated his actions of the game on May 2 with Leedsdale. He waited until there were two men on bases and placed a nice single, scoring both. Brown walked, but was caught at second by a

THRONG OF BUYERS CONTINUE

Special Half Price Brings Many Patrons to B. C. Ansley.

The people of East Liverpool and vicinity appreciate the great advantage B. C. Ansley obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow the regular 50 cents size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Every bottle of the specific sold by B. C. Ansley has his personal guarantee to return the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

It is only recently, on the persistent advice of B. C. Ansley that Dr. Howard's specific has been sold for less than 50 cents, but urged that it would be better to secure a quick introduction in East Liverpool in this way and the result has proven his good judgment.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at B. C. Ansley's today, for he has only a small amount of the specific on hand.

throw from the pitcher to first. Reilly made his second hit of the season and was followed by Davis, who rushed him to third on a single. Reark leaped out and with two men running, Winters took advantage of the situation. He shoved the ball with all energy and while it was being fielded Reilly and Davis crossed the plate. Winters was running as fast as he was able and hoped to make a three bager out of it but was cut off from right to catcher to third. The next and last run scored by the locals was in the eighth. Davis was hit and scored two singles made by Reark and Winters.

Heffelfinger will be with the locals this week. He missed connections Saturday and will arrive in the city tomorrow. The series with the Canton Marines promises to be a good one and will no doubt draw big crowds. The Marines have played good ball all season. They defeated Wheeling. ## THE BOY WONDER IS DOING WELL

Maley Has Pitched Three Good Games for Morgantown, But Has Had No Support.

Larry Maley, with the West Virginia University team, has pitched three games this season. He was with them on their eastern trip and did remarkably well. From all reports the team did not take a game, but it was no fault of Maley's. A Morgantown paper says that the only two players on the team are Maley and Schriver, the two that are really not qualified to play, owing to their not being scholars at the college. The team has a western trip booked, but it is not known whether they will make it. Following is the tabulated score of the game with Yale played last week. "Gamey" Westlake, who is playing with Corsicana, of the Texas league, seems to be catching as good ball this year as when he had his first year out in 1887. He has caught every game this season so far without an error or passed ball and his throwing is just as fine as ever. He is hitting like he hit for Powell's Pelicans, in 1901, when he stood seventh out of 135 hitters. He won the opening game at Fort Worth in the ninth inning with a hit and was presented with $50 by his Corsicana friends."

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

PRESIDENT IN CAMP

Party Resting Near Bridal Veil Falls in the Yosemite Park.

PASSED A MEMORABLE SUNDAY

Roosevelt Dressed in Ideal Outing Wardrobe—Spoke Smilingly of Being Caught in Snowstorm—Passed Most of Day on Horseback.

Yosemite, Cal., May 18.—President Roosevelt, John Muir and Rangers Leidig and Leonard encamped in the Bridal Veil, near the banks of the Merced, in a grove of pines and fir. At 3 o'clock the party arrived from the Vernal falls at the Happy Isles. Although the party had been hovering above the Yosemite since early morning, first at the heights of Glacier point, then above the Great Panoramia wall near the Vernal falls, and later at the Nevada and Vernal falls, yet this was their first entrance to the floor of the valley. There were but few there to meet him, because his point of entrance was not known to anyone, not even the members of his party. He spoke kindly to those there and then came down the valley via Camp Curry and to the Sentinel Hotel.

The president alighted and for a few minutes he spoke pleasantly to a few members of his party.

"We were in a snowstorm last night and it was just what I wanted," said he, smiling. The president was dressed in a khaki suit, army hat, and around his neck was a dusty looking handkerchief much the worse for wear.

In a few minutes he mounted his horse and with John Muir and President Wheeler proceeded to the Jorgenson studio, 200 feet up the river, where the party was joined by Mr. Jorgenson. This building had the honor of being the only one he was in while the party were here. They remained here more than half an hour and here the president expressed himself fully about the Yosemite and the Sierras.

"This is the one day of my life," said he, "and one that I will always remember with pleasure. Just think of where I was last night. Up there," pointing toward Glacier point, "amid the pines and silver firs in the Sierran solitude, in a snowstorm, too, and without a tent. I passed one of the most pleasant nights of my life. It was so reviving to be so close to nature in this magnificent forest of yours."

When shown the dining hall with its beautiful Dutch finish and furniture, his eyes fairly glistened and he said: "You know I am Dutch myself."

When Mr. Roosevelt came out of the studio, accompanied by the others of the party, he walked back to the bridge and held an informal reception lasting 10 minutes or more. A book descriptive of the valley and a key of the valley, made out at Manzanilla, were presented to Mr. Roosevelt.

"Here is a good Republican," said a Democrat, presenting his wife. The president smiled and warmly greeted both. A little baby was brought to him in its father's arms. He shook its tiny hand and, with a merry twinkle, said: "I have a half dozen myself."

A former member of the Seventh infantry, Mr. McPherson, which was so close to the president's rough riders in Cuba, was warmly greeted and for a moment the beauties of the Yosemite were lost sight of and the stormy days of the charge up the slopes of Santiago were recalled and discussed.

Within the shadows of old El Capitán, lulled by the spirit of Hohono, the Indian name for the Bridal Veil, warmed by a rousing camp fire, the president passed the night. It had been a hard day for him. Since early morning he had been in the saddle viewing and admiring some of the grandest scenery in the world.

He took the Raymond limited stage at 6 o'clock a. m., will lunch at Wawona, and arrive at Raymond in the evening, where his special train awaits him.

OMAHA STRIKE NEARING AN END

Number of Teamsters Return to Work. Laundry Workers in Competition With Employers.

Omaha, May 18.—The strike seems to be nearing an end so far as the shutting down of business is concerned. The first break in the teamsters' ranks came when 25 men decided to return to work. The teamsters' union decided to withdraw the objectionable features of their demands on employers, but it was stated that the latter demand a lower scale of wages.

Several of the large downtown restaurants will open with non-union men, most of whom are colored. The laundries will resume with non-union men, although a number of the old employees will be retained. The union laundry workers have arranged to enter into active competition with the laundries, having established a large number of offices in the city, from which they will send their work to laundries in the small outside towns. The laundry proprietors say that wagons will not be sent out at present, but work brought to the laundries will receive attention.

Centennial at Chillicothe. Chillicothe, O., May 18.—The centennial anniversary of the admission of Ohio into the union will be celebrated here this week with an extensive program, which will continue until next Thursday night. All of the surviving former governors of Ohio will be here, with Governor Nash, also Senators Foraker and Hanna, members of congress, all the state officers and members of the legislature and others. Chillicothe was formerly the state capital. The city has been elaborately decorated for centennial week. Ohio day was observed in all the churches of Chillicothe Sunday.

STREET CARS STONED

Attempt to Operate With Non-Union Men Starts Riot in Bridgeport.

MAYOR MULVHILL INTERFERES

Thirty-Two Men Were Injured by Flying Missiles—Fire Department Turns Stream on Rioters and Cools Their Ardor—Troops May Be Called Out.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 18.—The attempt of the Connecticut Railway and Light company to run cars with non-union men resulted in a riot, in which at least 32 men were injured. The sheriff says that another such outbreak will make the calling out of state troops inevitable. At the present time it is possible that the county sheriff will supercede the police in the control of the city.

Six trolley cars were started out on the Barnum and State street lines. There were large crowds around the car sheds at the time the cars were manned by 12 of the 130 strike breakers brought to this city Saturday by the trolley company. There was no disturbance of any kind for a couple of hours. When the first car, however, had completed its third round trip and was directly in front of the Wheeler & Wilson factory, where a crowd of at least 1,000 persons had gathered, a bombardment of stones began. Deputy Sheriff Hendrie and Plumb, who were riding on the car, plunged into the crowd to arrest a man whom they had seen throwing a stone. He was seized and dragged 50 feet to the car. The stone thrower was a big fellow and struggled so fiercely that a policeman went to the assistance of the sheriffs.

Mayor Stops Police Interference. Immediately Mayor Mulvihill hurried through the mob and ordered the policeman to keep his hands off the prisoner. He then told the deputy sheriffs that they had better let the man go. During the argument the stone thrower wrenched himself free and dashed away. In the meantime stones were flying in a shower and one of them struck Mayor Mulvihill on the head, bruising it badly. The two sheriffs jumped on the car and ordered the motorman to proceed to the car sheds, a quarter of a mile distant. The bombardment did not abate and the crowds on the street were so dense that the motorman had to go slowly. The stone throwing soon became so furious that the sheriffs drew their revolvers and fired five shots in the air. This caused the bombardment to let up a little and the car reached the barns and was run inside. The other five cars, operated on the same streets, received the same treatment as they followed the first car into the car barns.

When the last car had passed with 4,000 people gathered in a vacant lot opposite and violence once more broke loose. Brickbats and stones and everything that could be thrown were hurled at the barns and anything that belonged to the company in the vicinity.

Fire Department Appealed to.

Mayor Mulvihill saw that the policemen were unable to cope with the mob and he sent for Chief Coffin, of the fire department. The latter ordered out engine company No. 6 with a steamer and a line of hose and soon a stream was being played on the mob, which slowly fell back before the water. One of the strike breakers was assisting the firemen in holding the hose when a well directed brick struck him on the head and knocked him to the ground senseless. When the mob had dispersed the firemen and extra policemen were ordered back to their quarters and the regular detail remained guarding the car barns.

The officials of the trolley company will not reveal the names of the injured or the nature of their injuries. It is positively known, however, that not a man of the 12 who were on the six cars escaped injury of some kind.

In an interview the sheriff said: "I will have no further interference on the part of Mayor Mulvihill. I will have 100 special men here and will do my best to preserve peace, and if the mayor or anyone else attempts to interfere he will be stopped; if necessary I will supercede Mayor Mulvihill in authority."

PROTEST AGAINST MASSACRES

Anti-Jewish Outrages in Russia Discussed at Meeting in Baltimore. Letter from Cardinal Gibbons.

Baltimore, May 18.—Three thousand people attended an enthusiastic meeting in the Academy of Music in behalf of the victims of the anti-Jewish outrages in Russia. It was participated in by many leading citizens of the state and city and several thousand dollars were subscribed.

The following letter was received from Cardinal Gibbons:

"I regret that my enforced absence from the city prevents my presence at the meeting you have called to give voice to your horror at the events that have recently taken place at Kischeneff. I have no hesitation, however, to express my deep abhorrence at the massacres that have carried to their graves gray hair and in recent childhood. Our sense of justice revolts at the thought of persecution for religion's sake, but when persecution is attended with murder and pillage the brain reels and the heart sickens and righteous indignation is aroused at the enormity of such a crime. What a blot upon our civilization is this slaughter of inoffensive men, women and children. Please convey my grief for the dead, my sympathy for those made helpless by the murder of their natural protectors, and my sincere hope that this twentieth century will see the end of all such occurrences and that peace, good will and brotherly love may prevail on earth."

A series of resolutions was adopted calling upon the United States to bring such influences to bear on the Russian government as may tend to bring about a cessation of these inhumanities, and upon members of congress to protest against the outrages to which the Jews of Russia are subjected.

NEW CHURCH EDIFICE

Discussed By Chester Presbyterians. Will Be Finest in the Town.

At the services conducted by the Chester Presbyterians yesterday afternoon there was some discussion regarding the proposed new church to be erected this summer by the people of that denomination. Architect A. W. Scott, of East Liverpool, has had the plans in hand for several days and yesterday was able to furnish the congregation with a picture of the exterior of the edifice. It is a beautiful structure, and the Presbyterians are very much pleased with the prospect of having a building so imposing. The plans of Mr. Scott were accepted.

The estimated cost of the new church is $8,000, and it may reach $10,000 by the time it is ready for occupancy. The church officers now own three lots on Indiana avenue, near Fifth street, and here the building will be erected. The edifice will be by far the most valuable in the town, and will add greatly to the appearance of the suburb.

ANNIVERSARY DAY

Of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Celebrated By the New Cumberland Council.

The members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of New Cumberland are having a busy season just now and they will be assisted in the several functions by members of the order from Chester. Last evening the lodge celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the order by attending divine services at the Christian church. Rev. Mr. McCaffrey, pastor of the church, preached the sermon, which was a masterly effort and appropriate to the occasion.

Tomorrow evening the third annual lawn fete will be held on depot hill. A competent committee has arranged for the entertainment of those who attend and a fine time is anticipated. A beautiful bracelet with a watch attached will be awarded to the lady receiving the most money in a voting contest. A number of Chester Juniors will attend.

Fruit Crop All Right.

Agricultural authorities of Hancock county assert that, contrary to expectations, the fruit crops of the district have not been damaged by frost. There will be more apples this season than for years, the bloom on the trees instead of dropping off, remained fast and dried up, insuring an unusually large crop. One peculiarity of the fruit crop this year was that the peach, apple and plum trees were all in bloom at the same time, a circumstance not noted once in many years.

Rev. Father Saylor conducted services at King's Creek yesterday.

Most Men Want Stylish Hats.

Most men are more anxious to get the right style—a becoming hat—than they are to save a few pennies, but when best qualities and best styles form a combination, stylish men and frugal men are alike attracted. Such are the conditions here this season that all past records in hat displays are over-shadowed.

CITY'S FINANCIAL TANGLE TO RECEIVE ATTENTION AT THE MEETING TONIGHT

Problems So Perplexing That the Attorney General's Advice Has Been Asked.

The adjourned meeting of council, to be held tonight in conjunction with the board of public service, the board of public safety and the tax commission, will be one of the most important ever held by such bodies in the city. Everything that will come up for discussion and action is not known by any board or any person in the city. It is known, however, that a strenuous attempt is to be made to remedy the appalling conditions of the city's finances and to once more get the city on a new basis. Until this is done the newly elected boards, especially the board of public service, will not expend a penny, so its members say.

To have the exact conditions presented to the assemblage tonight would require the ability of a Wall street financier. It seems that there is not another city in the entire United States that is so muddled. Most of the officials claim to understand the situation thoroughly, but when they are called on to give an explanation no two decisions are alike. All well realize the absolute necessity of action, but there are none that are satisfied as to how they should proceed.

There was a general hustle among the members of the several bodies this morning and dozens of confabs were had. The result was that some decided on one plan, some on another. There was but one way to determine which was right and Attorney General Sheets was applied to. It is expected that he will render a decision before the meeting convenes. On his decision will rest an important transaction of business, which it is hoped will relieve the city of the awful strain and place it on the desired footing.

A prominent official stated this morning that something must be done, and that right away, or before the expiration of three months the city will be in the hands of a receiver.

WILL BE TOLERATED NO LONGER

Street Fakirs Are to Be Denied the Privilege Of Operating Here.

Grafters and fakirs have been reaping a rich harvest lately along the principal thoroughfares of the city, but their season has come to a sudden end owing to the stand taken by Mayor Weaver, who declared today that no more licenses to this class of transients will be granted. This decision will be hailed with delight by the many who have encountered congested streets and other inconveniences caused by them. Saturday night there were probably more people on the streets than at any time during the year and there was congestion enough when the crowds kept moving.

At least four fakirs were doing business and of course many people were gathered about them causing temporary blockades. One was operating a gambling device. So many complaints have been heard that the members of the board of public service decided to demand that the streets be kept open. The merchants will be glad that these peddlers of cheap goods are to be shut out. There is nothing which they sell which is worth buying that cannot be had on better terms at the local stores. East Liverpool has long been noted as a paradise for fakirs, who willingly pay a small license fee for the privilege of gulling the credulous ones out of their hard-earned money.

given by Miss Luthringer. Whoever he was the residents are positive he was desperate and experienced; otherwise he would not have been so persistent.

TRIED TO ROB M'NICOL HOME

BURGLARY IS PREVENTED BY NEIGHBORS' VIGILANCE.

Great Excitement on Fifth Street, But The Thief's Plans Were Frustrated.

Robbers attempted to force an entrance to the residence of D. E. McNicol on Fifth street last night, and would have succeeded in doing so had it not been for Miss Luthringer, who gave the alarm.

Mr. McNicol is out of the city, and it is thought the burglars were aware of this fact and selected the McNicol home on that account. It was some time after midnight when Miss Luthringer was awakened from a deep sleep by the sound of falling glass. The lady resides with the Cronin family, next door to the McNicol home, and the window of her room looks out upon the yard. She made her way cautiously to the window and looking out saw a man busily engaged in an attempt to force upon a window on the east side of the McNicol residence. Miss Luthringer was able to get a good view of the robber, who is described as a burly ruffian, above the average height and wearing a dark hat and clothes. She was badly frightened, but managed to make her way quietly and rapidly to an electrical appliance connecting the two houses, where she gave the alarm to the McNicols.

In a remarkably short time the wild excitement reigned in both households, and in the din the burglar escaped by running to the rear of the lot and climbing the fence. When quiet was once more restored and the families had returned to bed, the marauder again made his appearance in the neighborhood. It is certain that he was the same man, as no two could answer so perfectly to the description

FAST DRIVING WILL BE STOPPED

Chief Wyman Orders the Arrest of All Persons Driving Fast or Recklessly.

Chief Wyman has decided to rigidly enforce the city ordinance providing for the driving of horses on the streets. During the past few days he has received numerous complaints from the public and he announces that any and all violators of the ordinance will be arrested. The practice of horse racing and fast driving has been indulged in for a long time and the chief says emphatically that it must stop. Fourth and Fifth streets are taken generally by the law violators and the police have been ordered to watch the two thoroughfares closely. The ordinance prohibiting such driving is as follows:

"No person shall ride or drive any horse or horses or other animal in a reckless, fast or dangerous manner, or in such a manner as to endanger any person by driving at a rate of speed exceeding six miles per hour upon any street, public square or highway in this city, or cross any street crossing faster than a walk."

The chief will not enforce the latter part of the ordinance, providing for the street crossing, but will demand drivers to slacken up when a crossing is approached.

Oldest Motorman Quits.

DUVALL CARRIED JEFFERSON COUNTY

Columbus, May 18.—(Special.)—The friends of Hon. M. N. Duvall at the state capital received word Saturday night that he had triumphed over his opponent, Justin A. Moore, for senator, at the primary election held in Jefferson county Saturday. As the unit rule prevails Mr. Duvall will name all the senatorial delegates of the county.

His success is all the more notable when it is considered he was fought by the powerful organization of Congressman Gill.

A SCARED HORSE MAKES WILD RUN

After Throwing Occupants From the Buggy Dashes Down Into the River.

DEATH NARROWLY ESCAPED

While hundreds of people were thronging Sixth street at about 10.30 o'clock Saturday night, excitement prevailed for a short time when a horse attached to a buggy in which were riding Harry Miller, a kilndrawer, of the East End, and Miss Maud Tucker, California Hollow, became frightened and dashed madly up the thoroughfare.

What caused the animal's scare is not known, but it is supposed to have become excited at the sight of an automobile. It started on the wild run at a point near Diamond alley, plunging suddenly forward at a breakneck speed. Its first lunge unseated Miller and he was thrown violently to the bricks. He, however, held tightly to the reins for a moment, but was compelled to release his grasp after being dragged for quite a distance. A number of spectators directed their attention to the fallen man but the great crowd thought only of the awful predicament of Miss Tucker on a dead run, the hundreds followed the horse. When the animal reached Washington street it was going so fast that when it attempted to make the turn to go down Broadway the buggy was wrenched so fiercely that the king bolt was broken and the front wheels were jerked from the bed, throwing Miss Tucker with terrible force a distance of about 20 feet into a pile of broken dishes lying on the pavement in front of the D. E. McNicol pottery.

In terror the young lady screamed and the motley crowd was frantic by the time they reached her side. She was lying on the dishes, apparently stunned and suffering from terrible injuries. Officer Morris was on the scene and rushing to her side assisted her to her feet and together with others walked her down to the office of Dr. Norris, who upon an examination pronounced her injuries slight and stated that she was suffering more from fright than injuries.

Miller, upon finding that the young lady was practically unharmed, went down Broadway to find the horse and was much surprised at finding that the animal had rushed headlong into the river. He experienced some trouble in getting the horse out, but found that it had escaped unhurt. The buggy was badly used up, but the damage was not enormous. The horse and buggy belong to the East End livery.

The crowds that witnessed the exciting runaway deem it one of the most marvelous happenings that they ever saw. None can understand how the occupants escaped death when thrown so violently from the rig retreating to and including June 13.

Arranged for Charter.

There was an important meeting of the Federal Labor Council Saturday evening, attended by a large number of members. ## ANOTHER BOARD MUST BE NAMED

Assessment on Pennsylvania Avenue Will Have to Be Gone Over Again.

TECHNICAL ERROR FOUND

Which Invalidates the Work of the Former Board—Tax Levy Question to Come Up for Councilmanic Consideration.

Through the discovery of a technical error in the report of the board that made the assessment on the Pennsylvania avenue improvement, it has been decided that council at its meeting tonight must appoint another board, and thereby throw another $200 on the taxpayers. On the day following the last meeting of council it will be remembered that City Solicitor Davidson made the statement that it would not be necessary for council to appoint another assessing board.

The statement was made while in ignorance of the validity of the report that was accepted by council and on which the equalization board, whose report was turned down, based their equalizations. Solicitor Davidson, upon making an examination of the report, decides it was not compiled according to law and backs the decision by reference to a similar case on which the supreme court ruled. According to the code the report of an assessing board once approved and accepted does away with the appointing of any other assessing board.

The technicality lies in the fact that the board failed to designate in proper manner how it had made the assessment. The report was compiled and submitted by the following persons: A. W. King, J. H. Rigby and William Kent. The report was taken in 1901 and accepted February 11, 1902, and was as follows: "Your committee, appointed for the special purpose of making assessment benefits on property described in a resolution as passed by your honorable body under date of 1901, and known as ordinance 664 for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, take pleasure in herewith submitting our report in original form. Trusting the results of our labor may meet your full approval, we are respectfully, etc."

The report is not full and not complete, and as none of the benefited property holders could be made to pay an assessment until it is compiled according to law, council will be compelled to at first appoint another board and later on appoint the equalization board.

Among other numerous things to be acted upon at the meeting tonight will be for council to make the regular annual tax levy. This will no doubt consume much time. The levy for the present fiscal year will be greater than ever before. The code provides that council can levy 10 mills for the general running expenses and can levy whatever amount it deems fit for the keeping up of the library, park and interest funds. Heretofore it could levy only 10 mills. That the body can make the additional levy will assist materially in running the expenses without being compelled to borrow.

A LOT OF MEAT CARRIED OFF

Thieves Robbed the Armour & Co. Store House of Over $100 Worth.

The storage house of Armour & Co., foot of Union street, was robbed of cured meat, lard and other provisions on Friday night. It is estimated that the goods taken were worth $100 or more.

The robbers broke in the side door in the alley and evidently removed their booty in a wagon. No clue is yet reported.

They have a suspicion of who the guilty party is and will likely arrest him before evening.

AN ALLEGED JOKE LED TO TROUBLE

Man On Whom Seltzer Was Squirted Could Not See the Fun.

D. W. Mort was a visitor at the city hall this afternoon. His face was badly disfigured as the result of a fight in a West Market street saloon. Dr. Ogden was called and patched the wound. Mort claims that he was in the saloon taking a friendly drink with another man, when the latter took a seltzer bottle and squirted the contents on his face.

A moment later Mort reciprocated by throwing a glass of beer in his friend's face and a fight ensued, in which Mort got decidedly the worst of it.

COLLISION OF CARS CAUSED BAD WRECK

Four Freight Cars Were Rendered Useless And Other Property Damaged.

A bad freight wreck occurred in the lower freight yards yesterday afternoon, and as a result considerable property was destroyed and through traffic was delayed for some time.

The pony shifter was hauling a long string of cars near the old glass house switch, and a box car loaded with flint sided a number of loaded cars which stood on a switch running parallel with the main line. When the collision occurred the end of the cars were lifted clear off the tracks and were completely demolished. The car of flint was leaning in a dangerous manner when the train was brought to a standstill.

None of the crew was on the end of the train of 29 cars, and this probably accounts for the accident, as no one could see the close proximity of the other train. The moving car grated against three flat cars before it collided with the heavily laden box car and was stopped. In all four cars were so badly damaged that they will not be fit for operation.

The wreck train was immediately sent for at Wellsville and arrived at about 4.30. Over an hour was consumed in clearing the tracks so that traffic could be resumed. The passenger train due here at 4 o'clock was delayed over an hour by the wreck. The collision occurred just west of the flint mill at a point where the wrecked car was thrown across the main track, stopping traffic completely.

UNWILLING TO ACT AT THE EXECUTION OF CONDEMNED MEN

Rather Than Pull the Lever That Causes Electrocutation Warden Darby Resigns.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The resignation of William A. Darby, as warden of the Ohio penitentiary, was unexpected and caused surprise. His reason for resigning were given in these words: "The fact that I had to move the lever in electrocuting criminals has worried me more than I can stand, and I resolved I would never take part in another electrocution."

Three murderers have been ushered into eternity during Mr. Darby's administration—Farrell, of Steubenville; Ruthven, of Cleveland, and Gardner, of nowhere. The first shot down his friend in cold blood; the second, burglar and outlaw, killed a policeman, and the last brutally assaulted and murdered a little girl. It was Warden Darby's hand which released the deadly current which sent each of these into the spirit world and since their faces have haunted him in his dreams.

Had not Governor Nash commuted the death sentence in the case of Leonard Quaint, of this city, last week, Darby's resignation would have been given earlier. He will retire June 15. He has not decided what he will do but is meditating returning to his old home at St. Clairsville, Belmont county, where he may engage in business. He was sheriff of Belmont county up until a short time before his appointment as warden. Mr. Darby is one of the most popular and efficient wardens the penitentiary has ever had. The office pays $2,400 a year.

Warden Darby is not the only Belmont county man who has turned aside from a political job paying that compensation. About two weeks ago Attorney Mitchell, of St. Clairsville, Belmont county, refused a tender of the position of chief inspector of building and loan associations, which pays $2,400 a year, although urged to accept by Governor Nash.

VICIOUSLY ATTACKED HIS MOTHER

An East End Lad Wanted by the Police For a Brutal Assault.

Upon the serious charges of murderously assaulting his mother, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demmerling, of Sandy Bottom, East End, will be arrested by Officer Fisher and arraigned before Mayor Weaver this evening. The officer was detailed on the case at noon and had every assurance that he would locate the boy.

Mrs. Demmerling reported the affair to Chief Wyman from the East End fire station this morning. While relating the story she became quite emotional and it was with difficulty that the chief heard what she said. As trial has been overruled.

The case of Gertie Tatlett vs. Joseph Saxon has been settled. In the case of H. Speidell vs. J. S. Faloon, of Hanoverton, judgment by default was rendered for the plaintiff and damages assessed.

near as could be learned the boy got mad without reason, picked up a dish and threw it at his mother, striking her on the arm and cutting a terrible gash. After this act of violence he sprang at her with his fists and pummeled her in a dreadful manner. She was bruised on many parts of her body and being in a critical condition before the assault it is thought probable that the blows might result very seriously.

It is said that the family has had trouble before and that the boy is not the only one that has acted so disgracefully.

DIVORCE SUIT ENTERED

Against An Oil Man Who Is Said to Be a Fugitive From Justice.

Steuensville, May 18.—Another echo of the Goodlin-Teeters case came to light in the courts Saturday when Ola Kennedy, of Cadiz, wife of James C. Kennedy, entered suit for divorce from her husband, James C. Kennedy.

Kennedy is the oil man who was wanted by the grand jury that indicted Dr. Teeters. Kennedy, it was thought, knew more about the matter than any other person at that time, but before service could be gotten on him, left Knoxville. When the grand jury completed its labors Kennedy returned to the Knoxville oil field. It was Kennedy who was the much talked of friend of Miss Goodlin, as he had represented himself to be a single man, and had won her affections. For that reason he was wanted by the prosecutor. The wife charges unfaithfulness and says Kennedy left the state to avoid arrest.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

HONORABLE CAREERS.

The Wheeling News makes the following comment concerning two well known and high officials of the Brotherhood:

President Thomas J. Duffy has had a brilliant career in trades unionism. He is still in his twenties, having been born in England in 1877. With his parents, who had long been connected with the pottery industry in the old country, he came to Wheeling in 1885 and received his education in the common schools of this city and at the Wheeling Business college. He did his first work in a pottery in 1888, securing employment at the North Wheeling pottery, and later was employed at the LaBelle and Warwick potteries. He joined Wheeling local No. 6 in September, 1892, and in turn occupied the positions of financial secretary and president, and for a number of years represented his local in the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, of which he was in turn elected secretary and president. In 1899, at the Trenton convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters he was elected national secretary, a position he has filled to the greatest satisfaction of the membership and fellow officers. Since filling this position Mr. Duffy has been a resident of East Liverpool, where, by the way, he has achieved considerable prominence in politics, having been nominated for congress in the Eleventh district in 1903 on the Democratic and Labor tickets. Through a technicality in the Ohio law he was unable to accept both nominations and concluded to decline the Democratic nomination. The district is overwhelmingly Republican, and as a matter of course the nominee of that party was elected by a large majority, but the strength shown by Mr. Duffy was surprisingly great, and it is said he will be the next Democratic candidate, when he hopes to be able to cut down very materially, if

GUARANTEED BY WILL REED

Hyomel the Only Cure for Catarrh Which Returns Your Money If Not Satisfactory.

It is seldom that a druggist has enough faith in a medicine he sells even when prepared by himself, to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure; but Hyomel has cured so many cases of catarrh among the customers of Will Reed that he offers to refund the money to all who use it and report that they are not satisfied.

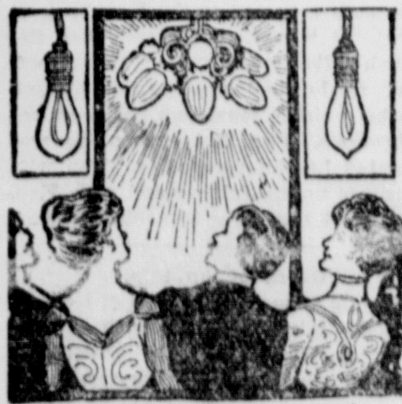

Hyomel is the simplest and most convenient remedy for catarrh ever offered to the public. Breathed through an inhaler so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, for a few minutes four times a day, it will absolutely kill all the germs of catarrh and cure the disease.

Catarrh cannot exist where Hyomel is used. It has a two-fold action, killing all the germs in the air passages and lungs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Many of the prominent men and women of the country have gladly given testimonials to Hyomel. After seeking relief in vain for years, this wonderful remedy has cured them of catarrh, and it is no wonder that they want others to know it.

Rev. Dr. Stryker, of the 34th street church, New York city, writes: "Hyomel gives wonderful relief in catarrh when other remedies have failed. It has been of great service to me."

If you have catarrh, accept Will Reed's proposition and use Hyomel.

not wipe out, the enormous Republican majority.

Harry Hailes is one of the most prominent and popular of the labor leaders of this community, a fact that has been attested by his election as president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, a position of many difficulties, which he filled with the greatest ability and discretion. Mr. Hailes stands very high in the estimation of the people of Wheeling.

BEAUTIFUL CREATIONS.

Many of the newest shapes in cups are simply delightful in the variety and beauty of their decoration. In shape, too, they are very attractive, one with a flaring edge and standard bottom being especially pretty. For small afternoon teas these small flaring tea-cups are now used for tea, coffee, chocolate or bouillon. Instead of the small after-dinner coffee cup, the high chocolate or two-handled bouillon cup used formerly.

Many of the larger vases and bowl shaped pieces, with their beautiful greens and browns, are bought eagerly for use as pottery lamps, for which there is such a craze at present. For decorative purposes the beautiful metallic lustres, dull yellows and grays of the smaller vases are unexceptional. Large and varying lengths of "bamboo" some of the pieces make the admirable flower holders.

Tosa pottery, one of the very best of Japanese patterns, is especially appropriate for flower holders or decorative pieces. This comes in subdued tones of gray, brown and green and is splendid in form and decoration. The ornamentation of one very attractive jar consists of a few bare branches of swollen buds, one or two having burst into bloom, of the same tint as the surface, but standing out from it in relief. This jar has no crackle, but has a smooth glaze; another has a very distinct glaze, with a conventionalized outline of a heron for decoration.

GLOBE EMPLOYE INJURED.

While alighting from a street car Saturday Andrew Vandine was badly injured and will not be able to work for several days. Vandine is employed at the Globe pottery and the accident occurred just as he arrived at that plant. He stepped from the car and his foot slipped, throwing him against the brick wall of the building with terrible force. His face was skinned and his nose is thought to have been broken. He returned to his home and is suffering considerable pain from his injuries today.

RIVERSIDE RUNNING FULL.

James Cannon, who has charge of the kiln department of the Riverside pottery at Wheeling, spent Sunday with relatives in this city. Mr. Cannon states that the plant in which he is employed is being operated to its full capacity, and the prospects are good for a steady run for some time to come. There will be a short loaf during Fourth of July week, but this will be solely for the purpose of making needed repairs, and not because of any lack of orders.

SPRINKLERS BEING PUT IN.

The William Brunt pottery is being equipped with the sprinkler system, and as a consequence several departments of the plant are forced to remain idle until the work has been completed. The kilnhands loafed Saturday because of a shortage of ware and were informed this morning that there would be no work in that department for several days.

RETURNED TO TRENTON.

John Morgan, who was a delegate from one of the Trenton locals to the convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters at Wheeling last week, returned to his home in the east this morning. Mr. Morgan came to this city from Wheeling at the conclusion of the convention and has been the guest for several days of Dr. and Mrs. Harrison.

CHELSEA RESUMES.

After some delay in several of the departments of the Chelsea plant at New Cumberland the plant has once more resumed in full. Twelve jigglers and 11 pressers are now steadily employed, and the plant will be turning out a good kiln per day very soon.

ENTERING UPON HIS 35TH YEAR

Another Milestone Passed by Dr. Taggart in His Long Pastorate.

AN APPROPRIATE SERMON

Prefaced By a Brief Review of the Growth And Development of the Church — A Large Congregation Present at the Services.

In commemoration of the thirty-fourth anniversary of his pastorate, Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, preached a most beautiful and impressive sermon to a large congregation yesterday morning. Though it had been expected that the able minister would devote the greater part of the service to a review of his long pastorate, he applied himself mostly to the theme, "Love for God's House."

The text was peculiarly fitting to the occasion. In all the years that he has administered to the spiritual needs of the congregation, which is one of the largest of this denomination in the United States, Dr. Taggart has cherished such a love in his heart, and it has been strengthened by steadfast and untiring work for the Master, whom he has served so well. Only modest references were made to his enviable career as a minister, but a strong emotion was apparent.

Both the minister and the congregation are to be congratulated over having such an occasion to commemorate, as such a long association is most unusual. It is a compliment to the minister that needs no comment.

Dr. Taggart preached his first sermon to the congregation of the United Presbyterian church yesterday 34 years ago, and now that the summit has been reached, the time has not seemed long. For the work and good that has been accomplished the thanks are returned to God, and the prayer was uttered that strength be given for the coming years.

God had his dwelling place in the tabernacle and manifested himself there. He delights to meet with his people in the places they have built and consecrated to Him and true believers love the habitation and those who build together in the spirit. The man who does not love the church, does not love Christ and the minister has but little respect for, or confidence in, the church tramps who go about from one sanctuary to another, altering their belief to fit the occasion.

The true Christian loves the church and its congregation and has a concern for the welfare of all of God's people. Any professed love for God that does not include the church and its people is of little worth. The true Christian never forgets his relation to the church and is constantly seeking the peace and prosperity of the congregation with which he is identified.

The proper love for God's house means a prompt and regular attendance at church meetings and participation in church work, and it will be manifested in sympathy and self-denial for the church. Looking backward over the years of his pastorate, the minister feels confident that he has met the requirements in devotion to God's house. Looking over the congregation he could see a few of those who had been present when he first preached in the church, but the most of them have passed away. He has many comforting memories of the loyal company of worshippers, dwindled now by the passing of years.

During the 34 years the attendance of the congregation at the service has been as full and regular as any other church similarly situated. Not all have proved as faithful as could be desired, and it has been a source of sorrow to the pastor and weakening to the congregation. The speaker made an earnest appeal for a renewal of the love for the house of God and pointed out the blessings and help that can be enjoyed only by those who dwell there.

In reviewing the years of his pastorate, Dr. Taggart gave many interesting figures and statistics, covering the growth in membership, the number of deaths and births among the congregation, the actual work of the minister and other matters of moment.

Another way to manifest the love of God's house is by generously contributing to its maintenance and toward the extension of the mission field of the church. The members of the congregation have been most liberal in this respect.

The members of the congregation greatly enjoyed the service, and it is the earnest prayer of all that many more such anniversaries will be celebrated.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ANNIVERSARY

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF THE SOCIETY'S WORK.

Installation of Officers And Other Interesting Exercises at First M. E. Church.

Special Epworth League services were conducted at the First M. E. church last night. The edifice was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, together with emblems of the society and the national colors.

After the meeting had been opened by the singing of a beautiful anthem, the retiring president, Thomas T. McCann, was introduced and gave a graphic and interesting history of the local society during the past year. The speaker took up the league work in its separate departments and reviewed the work of each in an interesting manner. The excellent work of the individuals at the head of these six branches was touched upon. The spiritual department had been in charge of Miss Ada Shaffer nearly all of the year, though Mr. Blount had rendered valuable assistance.

Mrs. Ara Hawkins had succeeded splendidly with the mercy and help department, and had originated many new ideas of a practical nature into the league's work.

The important literary work was in the hands of Mrs. R. W. Haines, and had prospered wonderfully under her careful guidance.

The social department was looked after by Miss Bella Bucher. All of the social entertainments conducted throughout the year had been under her direction and had all been successful.

Floyd Ailes had carefully cared for the department of correspondence, and the record of his work showed that the society had increased its membership 56 during the year. The membership now numbers 352.

E. H. Craven, who conducted the financial welfare of the league, made a report as follows: Cash on hand May 1, 1932, $56.59; receipts during year, $88.09; total, $144.68; expenditures during year, $119.91; balance in treasury, $24.77.

The Junior League was more successful this past year than for some time, and Mrs. Henry Goodwin, who conducted it, has devoted much time to the work, for which great credit is due.

Rev. Dr. Pratt then installed the following newly elected officers: President, Arthur W. Savage; first vice president, Mrs. A. W. Savage; second vice president, Mrs. Ara Hawkins; third vice president, Miss Lena Howard; fourth vice president, Floyd Ailes; secretary, Lawrence Patterson; treasurer, Moses Epley.

Dr. Pratt consumed the remainder of the time in an interesting and appropriate address. His remarks were calculated to be of great benefit to the new administration.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

From the Story Told By Daniel Rev. J. G. Reinartz Draws an Interesting Lesson.

"Belshazzar's Feast, or the Doom of Sacrilege," was the subject of Rev. J. G. Reinartz's sermon at the Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. The pastor took up the story so vividly told by Daniel and his illustrations and arguments were so forceful and eloquent that the large congregation was deeply impressed. He closed by saying:

"When a church has right principles and is steadfast to them, no matter what forces are arrayed against it, it will have true success. It will be dear to Christians, precious to those who love Him, a safe guide of sinners to the Savior, and will build up saints on their most holy faith. It will be a conservator of sound doctrine, of healthy discipline. It may not be fashionable, rich or popular, (truth never was popular), but it will be a blessing to the world and a nursery for heaven."

Interesting Services.

Services were unusually interesting at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Last evening Rev. C. G. Jordan preached on the subject, "Be Ye Perfect as I Am Perfect." The pastor covered the subject in its every phase, and the large congregation was delighted with the sermon. Mrs. Baird, of Seattle, Wash., a sister of Prof. Laughlin, sang "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," in a charming manner. Mrs. Baird is a talented singer and possesses a voice of rare sweetness.

ALVIN GREER HAS A SERIOUS MISHAP

Internally Injured Yesterday While Swinging on Grape Vines and May Die.

Alvin Greer, a 16-year-old boy, living with his parents in Calhoun's addition, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon, while playing with some companions along the river bank near the state line. Young Greer and a number of companions were enjoying themselves in the woods and one of their favorite amusements was to employ the wild grape vines that cling to the trees as swings. They had been having a great deal of fun in this way and all were on the lookout for vines that promised a longer swing. Finally young Greer found one clinging to the limbs of a huge tree at the edge of the river bank. Without stopping to test its strength he swung out over the steeply sloping bank.

The lad uttered a cry of delight as he sped through space and felt the exhilaration of his ride and the cry was echoed by his companions who were looking on in wonderment. But in another moment they were horrified to see the vine, when it had reached the farthest point, give way and precipitate its human freight to the ground, a distance of at least 20 feet. The lad struck the ground face downward and was rendered unconscious. Beneath him was a large stone which had struck him across the abdomen. When his companions reached the side of the injured lad blood was issuing from his mouth and it was apparent to them that his injuries were serious. Physicians were summoned, of whom Dr. Henderson was the first to arrive, and he directed that the lad be removed to his home. Later a thorough examination was made by three physicians, which revealed internal injuries of a very grave nature. During last night his suffering was intense and today his condition is little if any improved.

Noted Missionaries to Speak.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church has arranged for a special service for next Wednesday night to take the place of the regular prayer meeting. Part of the program has been arranged and further announcement will be made tomorrow. Two well-known missionary workers, Mrs. Robe, of the Indian territory, and Mrs. Baird, of Alaska, have been secured to make addresses. Both have had a wide experience in their respective fields and are interesting talkers.

Improving the Crossing.

About a dozen of the section men in the employ of the C. & P. commenced work this morning on the improvement of the Mulberry street crossing. Both of the tracks are to be leveled up and a new crossing piece will be installed. The tracks will also be brought up to the established grade of the street.

A sure way to prevent many of the runaway accidents so numerous in East Liverpool would be to see that the streets are kept free from waste paper. A sheet of paper, blown about the streets, may look harmless enough to a man, but in a horse it inspires more terror than a savage wild beast.

The total capitalization of new large concerns incorporated in the United States is at the rate of $185,000,000 a month, against $207,000,000 a month in 1902 and $500,000,000 a month in 1901. There is as much prosperity as ever, but water is scarcer.

Cleveland is engaged in a bitter struggle over an attempt to repeal the ordinance requiring all saloons to close at midnight. The firm of Push & Pull appears to be quite as powerful in Cleveland as Mayor Tom Johnson.

The new Pennsylvania law forbids the publication of anything derogatory to a public man or tending to make him appear ridiculous. If it is enforced the politicians who passed it will never see their names in print.

Unless Gov. Pennypacker meant to approve the new Pennsylvania libel law only in a Pickwickian sense he now has an opportunity to become a plaintiff oftener than any other man in America.

Unless Mr. Bryan wants to help Cleveland's boom along, his wisest course would be to say nothing. But the wisest course is the one that Bryan never takes.

Beaver Falls has an expensive library and no books put in it. That important matter appears to have been the very last thing its directors thought of.

Chief Wyman believes that no favors should be extended to drivers of fast horses. The ordinance against reckless driving should apply to everybody or to nobody.

Unless all signs are misleading St. Louis will have plenty of hoodlums to exhibit at the World's fair as products for which the city is widely known.

The pleasing assurance is given that the fruit crop is still in good shape. This means a great deal of money in the pockets of many farmers.

The republic of Colombia is said to favor immigration. If it expects to secure it the first step should be to close its revolution factory.

C. M. Schwab has discovered that his former employer, Carnegie, has by no means preempted the field of philanthropic endeavor.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Chal Peterson.

Mrs. Lucy Roberta Peterson, wife of George Chalmers Peterson, died at her home on West Fifth street at 4 p. m. yesterday, after an illness of five weeks, with inflammatory rheumatism. She was born in Chillicothe 35 years ago. Her maiden name was Lucy Jack and she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jack, prominent in Chillicothe. She was educated in her native city and eight years ago married Mr. Peterson, one of the most prominent men of this city, and has since resided here. She was prominent and popular in religious and social circles and very active in the work of the First Presbyterian church. Besides her husband, she leaves three daughters, all under six years of age, Greta, Ruth and Gwendolyn, and a sister, Miss Fannie Jack. The funeral service will be held at the late residence, 262 West Fifth street, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. C. G. Jordan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, are expected to officiate. The interment will follow in Riverview cemetery.

Mrs. Mary J. Donnelly.

Lisbon, May 18.—(Special).—Mrs. Mary J. Donnelly died at her home in this city Sunday afternoon. She was 78 years old. She had been ill since February with asthma of the heart. She was born near Elizabethtown, Pa., and with her parents, John B. and Martha Wilson, moved to this state in 1841, locating on a farm near Clarkston. She married J. J. Donnelly in 1871. They moved from the farm to Leetonia and came to Lisbon in 1871. Mr. Donnelly died June 15, 1900. No children were born to them. Two sisters, Mrs. Martha Fife and Mrs. Margaret Wright, of Lisbon, survive Mrs. Donnelly. She was a lifelong member of the U. P. church and greatly respected. The funeral will take place Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the house, conducted by Rev. A. W. Lytle.

TULLOCH'S LETTER MADE PUBLIC

Charges of Irregularities in Postoffice Affairs Embodied in Letter to Postmaster General.

Washington, May 18.—The full text of the formal charges of irregularities in the administration of the postal affairs preferred by Seymour W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, is made public by Mr. Tulloch. The charges are embodied in a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to the latter's request to be furnished any information that would substantiate published statements of Mr. Tulloch. Some of the matters complained of will be investigated immediately by the inspectors.

Mr. Tulloch in his letter says he is at the service of the postmaster general in rendering any further assistance that may be desired. Mr. Tulloch says that in all instances of irregularity and favoritism the proper allowances, records, vouchers, etc., were most carefully executed and kept, as a rule, and little information can be ascertained by their investigation; that the real facts behind the allowances and vouchers are not of record and are known to few—"those interested, who will not, and others, clerks, who dare not talk."

"For upwards of 19 years," the letter recites, "the conduct of affairs between the Washington city postoffice and the postoffice department was regular; then came the first break, the precursor of a system of allowances which afterwards led to irregularities, abuses, extravagance and my removal as an obstacle on June 30, 1899."

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that catarrh of the stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How can I cure my indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure catarrh of the stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

A WISE PHILANTHROPY

Which Offers a Certain Solution of the Great Problem of Intemperance.

One of the wisest philanthropies of this age of strenuous and continual nerve depletion has recently been announced to the public, and it offers a unique solution to the urgent sociological problem of intemperance. Now that medical science has clearly demonstrated that alcohol and drug addiction are diseases, it is clearly logical that they must be fought by medical means. There is a successful treatment, which has been known to the medical profession of New York city for ten years, which not only quickly relieves the imperious craving for a stimulant, but also has the advantage of toning the nervous system to its normal condition without any injury to the patient, without the use of hypodermic injections and in most cases without interfering seriously with the patient's daily occupation. This treatment of the Oppenheimer Institute is already known to the public through the remarkable array of prominent American men and women who are associated with the new movement to spread its benefits to every part of this land, planting branches in nearly every state of the Union. The Pittsburg branch is located at 110 West North Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

In order to do the greatest good to the greatest number of unfortunate victims of drink and drug addiction, the directors of this movement are working toward the ultimate purpose of so equipping the institute that it will never be necessary for any patient applying for treatment anywhere in this country to be turned away on account of poverty or financial embarrassment. To this end a Department of Charities has been established in connection with the institute and Rev. Dr. J. E. Price, one of the founders of the Epworth League, and for five years Dean of Ocean Grove Summer School of Theology, has left a large pastorate in Yonkers, N. Y., to take charge of this work as director of charities.

To aid in the work there has been organized a Women's National Auxiliary of the Oppenheimer Institute, of which Mrs. Dunlop-Hopkins, founder of the American Institute of Applied Design for Women, is president, and Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, one of the founders of the National Order of Kings' Daughters, is the vice president and secretary.

The specific objects of this auxiliary are to spread the knowledge of the institute to all classes and to all sections of the United States and of the world.

WELLSVILLE

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR WELLSVILLE

EAST LIVERPOOL A. C. SUFFERS SECOND DEFEAT.

A Most Interesting Game Which Came Near Shutting Out One Side.

Again the East Liverpool Athletic club went down to defeat before the Wellsville boys by a score of 7 to 1. It would have been a shutout if Webb had taken a little time and thrown to first, so Heckathorn could have at least touched him.

The second inning ended with the score 2 to 1 in favor of Wellsville. In the third, fourth and fifth the home team failed to score, but succeeded in getting two singles, Lang making both of them. Heckathorn made a sensational home run in the sixth. In the seventh Wellsville added one more run. The eighth proved to be a big inning, three runs being scored.

The visitors played hard and put up a stiff fight, but they could do nothing. The game was the most interesting that has been played here this season. The majority of the crowd were rooting for the home team, which no doubt helped to win the victory.

MORE YARD ROOM

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Purchases Lots. Opposition to New Tracks.

The Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad company is still buying land in the West End for the enlargement of its yards. Last week three more lots were purchased in the Smith & Michaels addition.

Near the Vulcan brick works Contractor Stringer has a large force of men and teams busy filling in and grading for the immediate laying of tracks. Work has not rightly begun near Eighteenth street, but when it does there will be trouble for the citizens of Nevada street, as those on the eastern side are determined to keep the company from laying any more tracks across that street. A petition is being circulated to present to council for to forbid the company adding more tracks.

CHILD SCALDED

Partially Upset a Boiler of Hot Water in Its Mother's Absence.

Vernie, the 13-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fulton, of Commerce street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, had a narrow escape from being scalded to death Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Fulton was preparing to wash and had a tub filled with boiling water on a chair in the kitchen. When she stepped out to get cold water the child went out into the kitchen and tried to upset the tub. Some water splashed out and scalded the child's left hand and arm, both limbs and about the abdomen. The child's screams brought the mother. Dr. Holland was at once called and made the little sufferer as comfortable as possible.

K. of C. Banquet.
Council No. 507, Knights of Columbus, held its annual banquet in the city hall Saturday evening. An interesting program of music and recitations was rendered, after which Rev. Father Daniel B. Crotty gave a pleasing address on the origin and work of the order. Quite a number of East Liverpool guests were present. In all about 300 attended. A fine supper, prepared by the ladies, was served.

Becomes a Star.

Mrs. Emma Laburne, wife of the late Charles Laburne, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bunting, of this city, has again taken up her profession as an actress. She has traveled with different stock companies and has risen rapidly in her calling. She is now in New York city where she is organizing a company for the coming season under the able management of Earl Burgess. She has a list of 16 plays in which she will play the star part.

RAIDED A RESORT IN THE WEST END

OTHERWISE POLICE BUSINESS WOULD HAVE BEEN DULL.

Mrs. McIntosh and Several Visitors Placed Under Arrest Yesterday.

The police department came dangerously near drawing a blank Saturday night. It was the old reliable West End that saved them. That section of the city is always good for a pull and when business is dull it can be counted on for some action. Like Trojans the officers made a heroic charge, and it is always dollars to doughnuts that they will come out of the shuffle with a full hand. While the entire force was brooding over the empty appearance of the jail corridors one of them was struck suddenly with a thought of Jethro Hollow, and in a moment's time the faces of all brightened. They knew the gloom around the city hall was about to be broken.

Chief Wyman and Officers Aufderheide, Dunn and Mahoney were designated to do the work. They determined upon the well known resort of Lou McIntosh, possibly 300 yards from the Jethro bridge, and with stealth the quartet approached the house. They encountered no difficulty whatever in gaining admittance, except that Chief Wyman got a scratched eye in making his way through some underbrush. He was not very dead this morning, notwithstanding a report of a morning publication. Upon entering the dive the officers found the proprietress, Mrs. McIntosh, and seven loiterers, who gave their names as follows: Madamisses Flora William and Clara Mitchell; Ernest Howard, Samuel McFadden, Harry Wayne and Ernest Mitchell. The entire bunch placed forfeit money and will likely turn up for a hearing this evening. The proprietress will get probably the minimum, which is $10 and costs, and the loiterers $5 and costs.

There were two other arrests made, both of them last evening. Charles Mercer was landed by Officer McDermott. He was drunk and was endeavoring to get to his home in Chester when taken. His fine was $2 and costs.

Charles Brown, arrested by Officer Morris, had the pleasure of paying $1 because he accidentally fell asleep. He maintained that booze was not the primary cause of the sudden grasp of Morpheus, and was very indignant when a fine was imposed.

A lad giving his name as Dave Carr applied at the city hall last evening for sleeping quarters. In reply to a question as to his age he said he did not know, but said he was sure that he was six years old four years ago. He was given a night's lodging and was turned over to the township trustees this morning. His home is in Brilliant.

the police force obliterated, the firemen cut off, and all other necessities eliminated. There is a plan decided upon by the board of public service which, if it terminates well, will place things in good shape but if it fails a calamity is certain. The assurance is given by the board of public service that once the city is on its feet it will at least stay there until the present board passes out of existence. It has been positively determined to spend money only when it is in the treasury for that purpose. The board knows that by doing so the city will never become bankrupt or in such conditions as are now apparent.

The only relief is a bond issue covering the entire indebtedness and the matter will be acted upon in accordance with conservative consideration taken by the members of the several bodies.

CAUSED BY JEALOUSY

Couple Quarrel and Woman Is Killed and Mother Fired Upon.

LOVER SUICIDES BESIDE VICTIM

Murderer Calls on Brother and Tells of Crime and Intentions, but Little Attention Is Paid to Story—Recently Released from Penitentiary.

Johnstown, Pa., May 18.—A tragedy, caused by jealousy, and resulting in the loss of two lives, was enacted at Baldstown, a little village in Westmoreland county.

The dead:

Albert Palmer, aged 31 years.

Mollie Beck, aged 30 years.

About 3 o'clock in the morning the neighborhood was aroused by the shrieks and cries of several women. Those who appeared on the scene witnessed an awful sight. In the rear room of the house in which the affair occurred lay the bodies of the persons named—the woman with a bullet hole through her heart and the man shot in the middle of the breast.

Palmer had been paying attention to the young woman for a couple of months and a number of times demanded that she marry him and that she quit keeping company with other men. Each time she refused. This was the cause of a number of bitter quarrels between them.

The mother of the woman says Palmer and the dead woman were on the porch and finally quarreled. They became so violent she started out to interfere. Just as she was about to step on the back porch Palmer drew his pistol and fired. Miss Beck falling to the floor dead. Mrs. Beck made a step toward Palmer, when he pointed the pistol at her and fired. The bullet just grazing her head and entering the wall of the room where she stood. He then left the house and went to the home of a brother, who lived but a short distance away and whom he awakened, telling him of what he had done and asking him to go along to the house of Mrs. Beck, adding that he intended to kill himself. The brother paid but little attention to what was told him, not even when the murderer bade him a tearful farewell and asked him to say goodbye to their parents, brothers and sisters.

Palmer then returned to the house where the girl was lying dead and dragged her body into the back room. He then laid down on the floor, placed the revolver to his breast and fired, the ball entering a point in the center of the chest and causing instant death. In this position the two bodies lay until an inquest was held.

The murderer had been discharged from the western penitentiary only a few months ago, where he was confined for having shot a colored man.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly, MRS. JOSIE A. BRITAIN. 44 W. Ninth St., Columbia, Tenn.

LODGES OF THIS COUNTY

Well to the Front in Increased Membership and Other Evidences of Prosperity—Interesting Statistics From Reports of the Grand Officers.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The Grand Lodge of Ohio, I. O. O. F., will convene in session at Ironton at 10 a. m. tomorrow. The sessions will last five days. Last year's meeting was held at Marion. The recently elected grand lodge officers will be inducted into office on Friday by the retiring grand master, J. M. Bever, of Columbus. They are as follows: Grand master, C. C. Pavey, Washington, C. H.; deputy grand master, E. C. Boyce, Cincinnati; grand warden, Isaac M. Warden, Chillicothe; grand secretary, C. H. Lyman, Pomeroy; grand treasurer, Charles E. Niles, Findlay; grand representative, Ivor Hughes, Columbus.

The past year has been one of great prosperity for the order in Ohio, the gain in membership being almost 2,300, which is greater than that of any recent year. Reports filed show that the total membership on December 11, 1902, was 70,499, which later increases. It is believed, has swelled to fully 72,000. During 1902 the number of members relieved was 252 less than in 1901, the number of weeks' benefits decreased $6,544, all pointing to a satisfactory condition of the order throughout the state. Grand Master Bever says that the order is on a more substantial financial basis and upon a higher plane morally, than ever before. In the five largest cities, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus and Dayton, where the order has sustained small losses during the past few years, there is a net gain of 138 for 1902. Akron, Youngstown, Canton and Springfield show a net gain of 72. Springfield shows a loss

WESTINGHOUSE PLAYED GOOD BALL

They Tried Hard But Lost to Local Y. M. C. A.'s by Score of 3 to 1.

CAPT. REARK SUCCESSFUL

In His Debut and Assurance is Given of Continuous Repetition Throughout the Season—The Strong Canton Marines Booked for a Series.

The Y. M. C. A.'s, under the captaincy of "Chick" Reark, played as nice a game as one would wish to see in West End park, Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the Westinghouse Athletic club by a score of 3 to 1. It was a game that installed interest in the fans at the very outset and throughout the nine innings enthusiasm was not abated.

It had been predicted that base ball would be dead in the city for a few weeks as a result of the exhibition the week before, but such was proven untrue when nearly 500 people filed through the turnstiles and filled the grand stand until there was not room for another person. The renewed interest rests solely on the wise choice of the management in selecting Reark as captain. Every one knows that a game in which he figures will be first class and they take delight in showing their appreciation of the fact. He did not have the lineup he intended, but made up the team with substitutes and they made a pretty showing. "Happy" Reark, brother of the captain, hid his face in a mask and called "Play ball" at 4 o'clock sharp. He umpired a fair game and neither team had cause for objections. It is likely that he will play the position through out the summer.

For three innings the teams seldom succeeded in reaching second base, only two getting as far as third. One of them was Wallace, when he landed one near the garden patch for a three bagger. In the fourth inning the game was started in earnest. Ferguson for the visitors was blind and went out on three shoves at the wind. J. Chambers knocked a hard one down to Gibson, who fumbled and allowed the runner to reach first. Chambers placed a fly in the hands of Reilly making two outs and only one man on base.

Ravey did the work. He hit the ball about as hard as a man could and it went bounding through the out field like a scared horse. Reark and Reilly were both after it, but the latter stopped and the play following was the feature of the game. Ravey was running with the wind, made the three bases clean, was so jubilant over the awful lick that he lost his head and made a desperate attempt to have it a home run. When he reached the goal Pelper had the ball and applied the bug in great shape. Reark had fielded it, threw it to Reilly, who let Davis have it and the play was complete when Pelper did his work.

This was the initial and last run for the Pennsylvania lads. They were out in one, two, three order thereafter, notwithstanding that they piled up four more hits.

The locals won the game in the last half of the fourth. And it was done by a play of Winters, who repeated his actions of the game on May 2 with Leetsdale. He waited until there were two men on bases and placed a nice single, scoring both. Brown walked, but was caught at second by a

THRONG OF BUYERS CONTINUE

Special Half Price Brings Many Patrons to B. C. Ansley.

The people of East Liverpool and vicinity appreciate the great advantage B. C. Ansley obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow the regular 50 cents size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Every bottle of the specific sold by B. C. Ansley has had his personal guarantee to return the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

It is only recently on the persistent advice of B. C. Ansley that Dr. Howard's specific has been sold for less than 50 cents, but urged that it would be better to secure a quick introduction in East Liverpool in this way and the result has proven his good judgment.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at B. C. Ansley's today, for he has only a small amount of the specific on hand.

throw from the pitcher to first. Reilly made his second hit of the season and was followed by Davis, who rushed him to third on a single. Reark fouled out and with two men running. Winters took advantage of the situation. He shoved the ball with all energy and while it was being fielded Reilly and Davis crossed the plate. Winters was running as fast as he was able and hoped to make a three bagger out of it but was out off from right to catcher to third. The next and last run scored by the locals was in the eighth. Davis was hit and scored two singles made by Reark and Winters.

Heffelfinger will be with the locals this week. He missed connections Saturday and will arrive in the city tomorrow. The series with the Canton Marines promises to be a good one and will no doubt draw big crowds. The Marines have played good ball all season. They defeated Wheeling. ## THE BOY WONDER IS DOING WELL

Maley Has Pitched Three Good Games for Morgantown, But Has Had No Support.

Larry Maley, with the West Virginia University team, has pitched three games this season. He was with them on their eastern trip and did remarkably well. From all reports the team did not take a game, but it was no fault of Maley's. A Morgantown paper says that the only two players on the team are Maley and Schriver, the two that are really not qualified to play, owing to their not being scholars at the college. The team has a western trip booked, but it is not known whether they will make it. Following is the tabulated score of the game with Yale played last week. "Gamey Westlake, who is playing with Corsicana, of the Texas league, seems to be catching as good ball this year as when he had his first year out in 1887. He has caught every game this season so far without an error or passed ball and his throwing is just as fine as ever. He is hitting like he hit for Powell's Pelicans, in 1901, when he stood seventh out of 135 hitters. He won the opening game at Fort Worth in the ninth inning with a hit and was presented with $50 by his Corsicana friends."

The Brilliants: Ruhe, catcher; Calhoun, pitcher; Myers, short; Duncan, first; Cook, second; Headly, third; Smith, left; Bond, middle; Brooks, right.

NO LIFE, NO ENERGY NO AMBITION.

These are common expressions now-a-days and the finger posts that point with unfailing accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental, physical or sexual ruin, as it surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mr. E. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says:

"As a general nerve tonic I can say: I commend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store. At the time I got the pills I was feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength, life, energy and ambition again."

NEW CHURCH EDIFICE

Discussed By Chester Presbyterians. Will Be Finest in the Town.

At the services conducted by the Chester Presbyterians yesterday afternoon there was some discussion regarding the proposed new church to be erected this summer by the people of that denomination. Architect A. W. Scott, of East Liverpool, has had the plans in hand for several days and yesterday was able to furnish the congregation with a picture of the exterior of the edifice. It is a beautiful structure, and the Presbyterians are very much pleased with the prospect of having a building so imposing. The plans of Mr. Scott were accepted.

The estimated cost of the new church is $8,000, and it may reach $10,000 by the time it is ready for occupancy. The church officers now own three lots on Indiana avenue, near Fifth street, and here the building will be erected. The edifice will be by far the most valuable in the town, and will add greatly to the appearance of the suburb.

ANNIVERSARY DAY

Of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Celebrated By the New Cumberland Council.

The members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of New Cumberland are having a busy season just now and they will be assisted in the several functions by members of the order from Chester. Last evening the lodge celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the order by attending divine services at the Christian church. Rev. Mr. McCaffrey, pastor of the church, preached the sermon, which was a masterly effort and appropriate to the occasion.

Tomorrow evening the third annual lawn fete will be held on depot hill. A competent committee has arranged for the entertainment of those who attend and a fine time is anticipated. A beautiful bracelet with a watch attached will be awarded to the lady receiving the most money in a voting contest. A number of Chester Juniors will attend.

Fruit Crop All Right.

Agricultural authorities of Hancock county assert that, contrary to expectations, the fruit crops of the district have not been damaged by frost. There will be more apples this season than for years, the bloom on the trees instead of dropping off, remained fast and dried up, insuring an unusually large crop. One peculiarity of the fruit crop this year was that the peach, apple and plum trees were all in bloom at the same time, a circumstance not noted once in many years.

Most Men Want Stylish Hats.

Most men are more anxious to get the right style—a becoming hat—than they are to save a few pennies, but when best qualities and best styles form a combination, stylish men and frugal men are alike attracted. Such are the conditions here this season that all past records in hat displays are over-shadowed.

Bishop Starkey Dead.

East Orange, N. J., May 18.—Bishop Thomas Alfred Starkey, of the Episcopal diocese of Newark, died at his home from old age. Mrs. Starkey was at his bedside. Though he was 84 years old Bishop Starkey's faculties seemed to be as clear as when he first became an Episcopal minister on May 31, 1848. He was born in Philadelphia and received a common school education. On leaving school he started business as a civil engineer in Pottsville, Pa. Soon he went to New York and studied for the ministry. He was ordained deacon in 1846.

Snow Storm in Montana.

Butte, Mont., May 18.—A general snow storm prevails throughout Montana. In the eastern sections of the state the snow is wet and unless the temperature shall fall the storm will benefit the crops and the range. Stock is suffering greatly and considerable loss among sheep is threatened.

CITY'S FINANCIAL TANGLE TO RECEIVE ATTENTION AT THE MEETING TONIGHT

Problems So Perplexing That the Attorney General's Advice Has Been Asked.

The adjourned meeting of council, to be held tonight in conjunction with the board of public service, the board of public safety and the tax commission, will be one of the most important ever held by such bodies in the city. Everything that will come up for discussion and action is not known by any board or any person in the city. It is known, however, that a strenuous attempt is to be made to remedy the appalling conditions of the city's finances and to once more get the city on a new basis. Until this is done the newly elected boards, especially the board of public service, will not expend a penny, so its members say.

To have the exact conditions presented to the assemblage tonight would require the ability of a Wall street financier. It seems that there is not another city in the entire United States that is so muddled. Most of the officials claim to understand the situation thoroughly, but when they are called on to give an explanation no two decisions are alike. All well realize the absolute necessity of action, but there are none that are satisfied as to how they should proceed.

There was a general hustle among the members of the several bodies this morning and dozens of confabs were had. The result was that some decided on one plan, some on another. There was but one way to determine which was right and Attorney General Sheets was applied to. It is expected that he will render a decision before the meeting convenes. On his decision will rest an important transaction of business, which it is hoped will relieve the city of the awful strain and place it on the desired footing.

A prominent official stated this morning that something must be done, and that right away, or before the expiration of three months the city will be in the hands of a receiver.

WILL BE TOLERATED NO LONGER

Street Fakirs Are to Be Denied the Privilege Of Operating Here.

Grafters and fakirs have been reaping a rich harvest lately along the principal thoroughfares of the city, but their season has come to a sudden end owing to the stand taken by Mayor Weaver, who declared today that no more licenses to this class of transients will be granted. This decision will be hailed with delight by the many who have encountered congested streets and other inconveniences caused by them. Saturday night there were probably more people on the streets than at any time during the year and there was congestion enough when the crowds kept moving.

At least four fakirs were doing business and of course many people were gathered about them causing temporary blockades. One was operating a gambling device. So many complaints have been heard that the members of the board of public service decided to demand that the streets be kept open. The merchants will be glad that these peddlers of cheap goods are to be shut out. There is nothing which they sell which is worth buying that cannot be had on better terms at the local stores. East Liverpool has long been noted as a paradise for fakirs, who willingly pay a small license fee for the privilege of gulling the credulous ones out of their hard-earned money.

TRIED TO ROB M'NICOL HOME

BURGLARY IS PREVENTED BY NEIGHBORS' VIGILANCE.

Great Excitement on Fifth Street, But The Thief's Plans Were Frustrated.

Robbers attempted to force an entrance to the residence of D. E. McNicol on Fifth street last night, and would have succeeded in doing so had it not been for Miss Luthringer, who gave the alarm.

Mr. McNicol is out of the city, and it is thought the burglars were aware of this fact and selected the McNicol home on that account. It was some time after midnight when Miss Luthringer was awakened from a deep sleep by the sound of falling glass. The lady resides with the Cronin family, next door to the McNicol home, and the window of her room looks out upon the yard. She made her way cautiously to the window and looking out saw a man busily engaged in an attempt to force upon a window on the east side of the McNicol residence. Miss Luthringer was able to get a good view of the robber, who is described as a burly ruffian, above the average height and wearing a dark hat and clothes. She was badly frightened, but managed to make her way quietly and rapidly to an electrical appliance connecting the two houses, where she gave the alarm to the McNicols.

In a remarkably short time the wild excitement reigned in both households, and in the din the burglar escaped by running to the rear of the lot and climbing the fence. When quiet was once more restored and the families had returned to bed, the marauder again made his appearance in the neighborhood. It is certain that he was the same man, as no two could answer so perfectly to the description given by Miss Luthringer. Whoever he was the residents are positive he was desperate and experienced; otherwise he would not have been so persistent.

FAST DRIVING WILL BE STOPPED

Chief Wyman Orders the Arrest of All Persons Driving Fast or Recklessly.

Chief Wyman has decided to rigidly enforce the city ordinance providing for the driving of horses on the streets. During the past few days he has received numerous complaints from the public and he announces that any and all violators of the ordinance will be arrested. The practice of horse racing and fast driving has been indulged in for a long time and the chief says emphatically that it must stop. Fourth and Fifth streets are taken generally by the law violators and the police have been ordered to watch the two thoroughfares closely. The ordinance prohibiting such driving is as follows:

"No person shall ride or drive any horse or horses or other animal in a reckless, fast or dangerous manner, or in such a manner as to endanger any person by driving at a rate of speed exceeding six miles per hour upon any street, public square or highway in this city, or cross any street crossing faster than a walk."

The chief will not enforce the latter part of the ordinance, providing for the street crossing, but will demand drivers to slacken up when a crossing is approached.

DUVALL CARRIED JEFFERSON COUNTY

Won a Signal Triumph at the Primaries Held on Saturday.

Columbus, May 18.—(Special.)—The friends of Hon. M. N. Duvall at the state capital received word Saturday night that he had triumphed over his opponent, Justin A. Moore, for senator, at the primary election held in Jefferson county Saturday. As the unit rule prevails Mr. Duvall will name all the senatorial delegates of the county.

His success is all the more notable when it is considered he was fought by the powerful organization of Congressman Gill.

A SCARED HORSE MAKES WILD RUN

After Throwing Occupants From the Buggy Dashes Down Into the River.

DEATH NARROWLY ESCAPED

While hundreds of people were thronging Sixth street at about 10.30 o'clock Saturday night, excitement prevailed for a short time when a horse attached to a buggy in which were riding Harry Miller, a kindred, of the East End, and Miss Maud Tucker, California Hollow, became frightened and dashed madly up the thoroughfare.

What caused the animal's scare is not known, but it is supposed to have become excited at the sight of an automobile. It started on the wild run at a point near Diamond alley, plunging suddenly forward at a breakneck speed. Its first lunge unseated Miller and he was thrown violently to the bricks. He, however, held tightly to the reins for a moment, but was compelled to release his grasp after being dragged for quite a distance. A number of spectators directed their attention to the fallen man but the great crowd thought only of the awful predicament of Miss Tucker on a dead run, the hundreds followed the horse. When the animal reached Washington street it was going so fast that when it attempted to make the turn to go down Broadway the buggy was wrenched so fiercely that the king bolt was broken and the front wheels were jerked from the bed, throwing Miss Tucker with terrible force a distance of about 20 feet into a pile of broken dishes lying on the pavement in front of the D. E. McNicol pottery.

In terror the young lady screamed and the motley crowd was frantic by the time they reached her side. She was lying on the dishes, apparently stunned and suffering from terrible injuries. Officer Morris was on the scene and rushing to her side assisted her to her feet and together with others walked her down to the office of Dr. Norris, who upon an examination pronounced her injuries slight and stated that she was suffering more from fright than injuries.

Miller, upon finding that the young lady was practically unharmed, went down Broadway to find the horse and was much surprised at finding that the animal had rushed headlong into the river. He experienced some trouble in getting the horse out, but found that it had escaped unhurt. The buggy was badly used up, but the damage was not enormous. The horse and buggy belong to the East End livery.

The crowds that witnessed the exciting runaway deem it one of the most marvelous happenings that they ever saw. None can understand how the occupants escaped death when thrown so violently from the rig.

Retraining to and including June 13.

Arranged for Charter.

Arrangements were made to secure a charter and other necessary steps toward a permanent organization were taken. ## ANOTHER BOARD MUST BE NAMED

Assessment on Pennsylvania Avenue Will Have to Be Gone Over Again.

TECHNICAL ERROR FOUND

Which Invalidates the Work of the Former Board—Tax Levy Question to Come Up for Councilmanic Consideration.

Through the discovery of a technical error in the report of the board that made the assessment on the Pennsylvania avenue improvement, it has been decided that council at its meeting tonight must appoint another board, and thereby throw another $200 on the taxpayers. On the day following the last meeting of council it will be remembered that City Solicitor Davidson made the statement that it would not be necessary for council to appoint another assessing board.

The statement was made while in ignorance of the validity of the report that was accepted by council and on which the equalization board, whose report was turned down, based their equalizations. Solicitor Davidson, upon making an examination of the report, decides it was not compiled according to law and backs the decision by reference to a similar case on which the supreme court ruled. According to the code the report of an assessing board once approved and accepted does away with the appointing of any other assessing board.

The technicality lies in the fact that the board failed to designate in proper manner how it had made the assessment. The report was compiled and submitted by the following persons: A. W. King, J. H. Rigby and William Kent. The report was taken in 1901 and accepted February 11, 1902, and was as follows: "Your committee, appointed for the special purpose of making assessment benefits on property described in a resolution as passed by your honorable body under date of 1901, and known as ordinance 664 for the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, take pleasure in herewith submitting our report in original form. Trusting the results of our labor may meet your full approval, we are respectfully, etc."

The report is not full and not complete, and as none of the benefited property holders could be made to pay an assessment until it is compiled according to law, council will be compelled to at first appoint another board and later on appoint the equalization board.

Among other numerous things to be acted upon at the meeting tonight will be for council to make the regular annual tax levy. This will no doubt consume much time. The levy for the present fiscal year will be greater than ever before. The code provides that council can levy 10 mills for the general running expenses and can levy whatever amount it deems fit for the keeping up of the library, park and interest funds. Heretofore it could levy only 10 mills. That the body can make the additional levy will assist materially in running the expenses without being compelled to borrow.

A LOT OF MEAT CARRIED OFF

Thieves Robbed the Armour & Co. Store House of Over $100 Worth.

The storeroom of Armour & Co., foot of Union street, was robbed of cured meat, lard and other provisions on Friday night. It is estimated that the goods taken were worth $100 or more.

The robbers broke in the side door in the alley and evidently removed their booty in a wagon. No clue is yet reported.

Carnahan, proprietor of a saw mill, located near Round Knob, accompanied by Constable Cameron, applied at the city hall this afternoon and stated that they were on the search for a man who had stolen a lot of valuable equipment from the saw mill. They have a suspicion of who the guilty party is and will likely arrest him before evening.

AN ALLEGED JOKE LED TO TROUBLE

Man on Whom Seltzer Was Squirted Could Not See the Fun.

D. W. Mort was a visitor at the city hall this afternoon. His face was badly disfigured as the result of a fight in a West Market street saloon. Dr. Ogden was called and patched the wound. Mort claims that he was in the saloon taking a friendly drink with another man, when the latter took a seltzer bottle and squirted the contents on his face.

A moment later Mort reciprocated by throwing a glass of beer in his friend's face and a fight ensued, in which Mort got decidedly the worst of it.

COLLISION OF CARS CAUSED BAD WRECK

Four Freight Cars Were Rendered Useless And Other Property Damaged.

A bad freight wreck occurred in the lower freight yards yesterday afternoon, and as a result considerable property was destroyed and through traffic was delayed for some time.

The pony shifter was hauling a long string of cars near the old glass house switch, and a box car loaded with flint sided a number of loaded cars which stood on a switch running parallel with the main line. When the collision occurred the end of the cars were lifted clear off the tracks and were completely demolished. The car of flint was leaning in a dangerous manner when the train was brought to a standstill.

None of the crew was on the end of the train of 20 cars, and this probably accounts for the accident, as no one could see the close proximity of the other train. The moving car grated against three flat cars before it collided with the heavily laden box car and was stopped. In all four cars were so badly damaged that they will not be fit for operation.

The wreck train was immediately sent for at Wellsville and arrived at about 4.30. Over an hour was consumed in clearing the tracks so that traffic could be resumed. The passenger train due here at 4 o'clock was delayed over an hour by the wreck. The collision occurred just west of the flint mill at a point where the wrecked car was thrown across the main track, stopping traffic completely.

UNWILLING TO ACT AT THE EXECUTION OF CONDEMNED MEN

Rather Than Pull the Lever That Causes Execution Warden Darby Resigns.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The resignation of William A. Darby, as warden of the Ohio penitentiary, was unexpected and caused surprise. His reason for resigning were given in these words: "The fact that I had to move the lever in electrocution criminals has worried me more than I can stand, and I resolved I would never take part in another electrocution."

Three murderers have been ushered into eternity during Mr. Darby's administration—Farrell, of Steubenville; Ruthven, of Cleveland, and Gardner, of nowhere. The first shot down his friend in cold blood; the second, burglar and outlaw, killed a policeman, and the last brutally assaulted and murdered a little girl. It was Warden Darby's hand which released the deadly current which sent each of these into the spirit world and since their faces have haunted him in his dreams.

Had not Governor Nash commuted the death sentence in the case of Leonard Quint, of this city, last week, Darby's resignation would have been given earlier. He will retire June 15. He has not decided what he will do but is meditating returning to his old home at St. Clairsville, Belmont county, where he may engage in business. He was sheriff of Belmont county up until a short time before his appointment as warden. Mr. Darby is one of the most popular and efficient wardens the penitentiary has ever had. The office pays $2,400 a year.

Warden Darby is not the only Belmont county man who has turned aside from a political job paying that compensation. About two weeks ago Attorney Mitchell, of St. Clairsville, Belmont county, refused a tender of the position of chief inspector of building and loan associations, which pays $2,400 a year, although urged to accept by Governor Nash.

VICIOUSLY ATTACKED HIS MOTHER

An East End Lad Wanted by the Police For a Brutal Assault.

Upon the serious charges of murderously assaulting his mother, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demmerling, of Sandy Bottom, East End, will be arrested by Officer Fisher and arraigned before Mayor Weaver this evening. The officer was detailed on the case at noon and had every assurance that he would locate the boy.

Mrs. Demmerling reported the affair to Chief Wyman from the East End fire station this morning. While relating the story she became quite emotional and it was with difficulty that the chief heard what she said. As refel has been overruled. The case of Gertie Tatlett vs. Joseph Saxon has been settled. In the case of D. H. Speidell vs. J. S. Faloan, of Hanoverton, judgment by default was rendered for the plaintiff and damages assessed.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock a base ball game will be played at Rock Springs park between the married men and the bachelors from among the Elks. A game has also been arranged with the Carroll club to take place Friday evening. The regular Elks team will play in this contest and it promises to be a good one.

DIVORCE SUIT ENTERED

Against An Oil Man Who Is Said to Be a Fugitive From Justice.

Steubenville, May 18.—Another echo of the Goodlin-Teeters case came to light in the courts Saturday when Ola Kennedy, of Cadiz, wife of James C. Kennedy, entered suit for divorce from her husband, James C. Kennedy.

Kennedy is the oil man who was wanted by the grand jury that indicted Dr. Teeters. Kennedy, it was thought, knew more about the matter than any other person at that time, but before service could be gotten on him, left Knoxville. When the grand jury completed its labors Kennedy returned to the Knoxville oil field. It was Kennedy who was the much talked of friend of Miss Goodlin, as he had represented himself to be a single man, and had won her affections. For that reason he was wanted by the prosecutor. The wife charges unfaithfulness and says Kennedy left the state to avoid arrest.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

HONORABLE CAREERS.

The Wheeling News makes the following comment concerning two well known and high officials of the Brotherhood:

President Thomas J. Duffy has had a brilliant career in trades unionism. He is still in his twenties, having been born in England in 1877. With his parents, who had long been connected with the pottery industry in the old country, he came to Wheeling in 1885 and received his education in the common schools of this city and at the Wheeling Business College. He did his first work in a pottery in 1885, securing employment at the North Wheeling pottery, and later was employed at the LaBelle and Warwick potteries. He joined Wheeling local No. 6 in September, 1892, and in turn occupied the positions of financial secretary and president, and for a number of years represented his local in the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, of which he was in turn elected secretary and president. In 1899, at the Trenton convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters he was elected national secretary, a position he has filled to the greatest satisfaction of the membership and fellow officers. Since filling this position Mr. Duffy has been a resident of East Liverpool, where, by the way, he has achieved considerable prominence in politics, having been nominated for congress in the Eleventh district in 1903 on the Democratic and Labor tickets. Through a technicality in the Ohio law he was unable to accept both nominations and concluded to decline the Democratic nomination. The district is overwhelmingly Republican, and as a matter of course the nominee of that party was elected by a large majority, but the strength shown by Mr. Duffy was surprisingly great, and it is said he will be the next Democratic candidate, when he hopes to be able to cut down very materially, if not wipe out, the enormous Republican majority.

Harry Hailes is one of the most prominent and popular of the labor leaders of this community, a fact that has been attested by his election as president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, a position of many difficulties, which he filled with the greatest ability and discretion. Mr. Hailes stands very high in the estimation of the people of Wheeling.

BEAUTIFUL CREATIONS.

Many of the newest shapes in cups are simply delightful in the variety and beauty of their decoration. In shape, too, they are very attractive, one with a flaring edge and standard bottom being especially pretty. For small afternoon teas these small flaring tea cups are now used for tea, coffee, chocolate or bouillon, instead of the small after-dinner coffee cup, the high chocolate or two-handled bouillon cup used formerly.

Many of the larger vases and bowl shaped pieces, with their beautiful greens and browns, are bought eagerly for use as pottery lamps, for which there is such a craze at present. For decorative purposes the beautiful metallic lustres, dull yellows and grays of the smaller vases are unexceptional. Large and varying lengths of handles, some of the pieces make them admirable flower holders.

Tosa pottery, one of the very best of Japanese patterns, is especially appropriate for flower holders or decorative pieces. This comes in subdued tones of gray, brown and green and is splendid in form and decoration. The ornamentation of one very attractive jar consists of a few bare branches of swollen buds, one or two having burst into bloom, of the same tint as the surface, but standing out from it in relief. This jar has no crackle, but has a smooth glaze; another has a very distinct glaze, with a conventionalized outline of a heron for decoration.

GUARANTEED BY WILL REED

Hyomel the Only Cure for Catarrh Which Returns Your Money If Not Satisfactory.

It is seldom that a druggist has enough faith in a medicine he sells even when prepared by himself, to be willing to refund the money if it does not cure; but Hyomel has cured so many cases of catarrh among the customers of Will Reed that he offers to refund the money to all who use it and report that they are not satisfied.

Hyomel is the simplest and most convenient remedy for catarrh ever offered to the public. Breathe through an inhaler so small that it can be carried in the vest pocket, for a few minutes four times a day, it will absolutely kill all the germs of catarrh and cure the disease.

Catarrh cannot exist where Hyomel is used. It has a two-fold action, killing all the germs in the air passages and lungs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Many of the prominent men and women of the country have gladly given testimonials to Hyomel. After seeking relief in vain for years, this wonderful remedy has cured them of catarrh, and it is no wonder that they want others to know it.

Rev. Dr. Stryker of the 34th street church, New York city, writes: "Hyomel gives wonderful relief in catarrh when other remedies have failed. It has been of great service to me."

If you have catarrh, accept Will Reed's proposition and use Hyomel.

ENTERING UPON HIS 35TH YEAR

Another Milestone Passed by Dr. Taggart in His Long Pastorate.

AN APPROPRIATE SERMON

Prefaced By a Brief Review of the Growth And Development of the Church — A Large Congregation Present at the Services.

In commemoration of the thirty-fourth anniversary of his pastorate, Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, preached a most beautiful and impressive sermon to a large congregation yesterday morning. Though it had been expected that the able minister would devote the greater part of the service to a review of his long pastorate, he applied himself mostly to the theme, "Love for God's House."

The text was peculiarly fitting to the occasion. In all the years that he has administered to the spiritual needs of the congregation, which is one of the largest of this denomination in the United States, Dr. Taggart has cherished such a love in his heart, and it has been strengthened by steadfast and untiring work for the Master, whom he has served so well. Only modest references were made to his enviable career as a minister, but a strong emotion was apparent.

Both the minister and the congregation are to be congratulated over having such an occasion to commemorate, as such a long association is most unusual. It is a compliment to the minister that needs no comment.

Dr. Taggart preached his first sermon to the congregation of the United Presbyterian church yesterday 34 years ago, and now that the summit has been reached, the time has not seen long. For the work and good that has been accomplished the thanks are returned to God, and the prayer was uttered that strength be given for the coming years.

God had his dwelling place in the tabernacle and manifested himself there. He delights to meet with his people in the places they have built and consecrated to Him and true believers love the habitation and those who builded together in the spirit. The man who does not love the church, does not love Christ and the minister has but little respect for, or confidence in, the church tramps who go about from one sanctuary to another, altering their belief to fit the occasion.

The true Christian loves the church and its congregation and has a concern for the welfare of all of God's people. Any professed love for God that does not include the church and its people is of little worth. The true Christian never forgets his relation to the church and is constantly seeking the peace and prosperity of the congregation with which he is identified.

The proper love for God's house means a prompt and regular attendance at church meetings and participation in church work, and it will be manifested in sympathy and self-denial for the church. Looking backward over the years of his pastorate, the minister feels confident that he has met the requirements in devotion to God's house. Looking over the congregation he could see a few of those who had been present when he first preached in the church, but the most of them have passed away. He has many comforting memories of the loyal company of worshippers, dwindled now by the passing of years.

During the 34 years the attendance of the congregation at the service has been as full and regular as any other church similarly situated. Not all have proved as faithful as could be desired, and it has been a source of sorrow to the pastor and weakening to the congregation. The speaker made an earnest appeal for a renewal of the love for the house of God and pointed out the blessings and help that can be enjoyed only by those who dwell there.

In reviewing the years of his pastorate, Dr. Taggart gave many interesting figures and statistics, covering the growth in membership, the number of deaths and births among the congregation, the actual work of the minister and other matters of moment.

Another way to manifest the love of God's house is by generously contributing to its maintenance and toward the extension of the mission field of the church. The members of the congregation have been most liberal in this respect.

The members of the congregation greatly enjoyed the service, and it is the earnest prayer of all that many more such anniversaries will be celebrated.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ANNIVERSARY

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF THE SOCIETY'S WORK.

Installation of Officers And Other Interesting Exercises at First M. E. Church.

Special Epworth League services were conducted at the First M. E. church last night. The edifice was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, together with emblems of the society and the national colors.

After the meeting had been opened by the singing of a beautiful anthem, the retiring president, Thomas T. McCann, was introduced and gave a graphic and interesting history of the local society during the past year. The speaker took up the league work in its separate departments and reviewed the work of each in an interesting manner. The excellent work of the individuals at the head of these six branches was touched upon. The spiritual department had been in charge of Miss Ada Shaffer nearly all of the year, though Mr. Blount had rendered valuable assistance.

Mrs. Ara Hawkins had succeeded splendidly with the mercy and help department, and had originated many new ideas of a practical nature into the league's work.

The important literary work was in the hands of Mrs. R. W. Haines, and had prospered wonderfully under her careful guidance.

The social department was looked after by Miss Bella Bucher. All of the social entertainments conducted throughout the year had been under her direction and had all been successful.

Floyd Alles had carefully cared for the department of correspondence, and the record of his work showed that the society had increased its membership 56 during the year. The membership now numbers 352.

E. H. Craven, who conducted the financial welfare of the league, made a report as follows: Cash on hand May 1, 1902, $66.99; receipts during year, $88.09; total, $155.08; expenditures during year, $119.91; balance in treasury, $35.17.

The Junior League was more successful this past year than for some time, and Mrs. Henry Goodwin, who conducted it, has devoted much time to the work, for which great credit is due.

Rev. Dr. Pratt then installed the following newly elected officers: President, Arthur W. Savage; first vice president, Mrs. A. W. Savage; second vice president, Mrs. A. Hawkins; third vice president, Miss Lena Howard; fourth vice president, Floyd Aisles; secretary, Lawrence Patterson; treasurer, Moses Epley.

Dr. Pratt consumed the remainder of the time in an interesting and appropriate address. His remarks were calculated to be of great benefit to the new administration.

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

From the Story Told By Daniel Rev. J. G. Reinartz Draws an Interesting Lesson.

"Belshazzar's Feast, or the Doom of Sacrilege," was the subject of Rev. J. G. Reinartz's sermon at the Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. The pastor took up the story so vividly told by Daniel and his illustrations and arguments were so forceful and eloquent that the large congregation was deeply impressed. He closed by saying:

"When a church has right principles and is steadfast to them, no matter what forces are arrayed against it, it will have true success. It will be dear to Christians, precious to those who love Him, a safe guide of sinners to the Savior, and will build up saints on their most holy faith. It will be a conservator of sound doctrine, of healthy discipline. It may not be fashionable, rich or popular, (truth never was popular), but it will be a blessing to the world and a nursery for heaven."

Interesting Services.

Services were unusually interesting at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Last evening Rev. C. G. Jordan preached on the subject, "Be Ye Perfect as I Am Perfect." The pastor covered the subject in its every phase, and the large congregation was delighted with the sermon. Mrs. Baird, of Seattle, Wash., a sister of Prof. Laughlin, sang "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," in a charming manner. Mrs. Baird is a talented singer and possesses a voice of rare sweetness.

ALVIN GREER HAS A SERIOUS MISHAP

Internally Injured Yesterday While Swinging on Grape Vines and May Die.

Alvin Greer, a 16-year-old boy, living with his parents in Calhoun's addition, was probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon, while playing with some companions along the river bank near the state line. Young Greer and a number of companions were enjoying themselves in the woods and one of their favorite amusements was to employ the wild grape vines that cling to the trees as swings. They had been having a great deal of fun in this way and all were on the lookout for vines that promised a longer swing. Finally young Greer found one clinging to the limbs of a huge tree at the edge of the river bank. Without stopping to test its strength he swung out over the steeply sloping bank.

The lad uttered a cry of delight as he sped through space and felt the exhilaration of his ride and the cry was echoed by his companions who were looking on in wonderment. But in another moment they were horrified to see the vine, when it had reached the farthestmost point, give way and precipitate its human freight to the ground, a distance of at least 20 feet. The lad struck the ground face downward and was rendered unconscious. Beneath him was a large stone which had struck him across the abdomen. When his companions reached the side of the injured lad blood was issuing from his mouth and it was apparent to them that his injuries were serious. Physicians were summoned, of whom Dr. Henderson was the first to arrive, and he directed that the lad be removed to his home. Later a thorough examination was made by three physicians, which revealed internal injuries of a very grave nature. During last night his suffering was intense and today his condition is little if any improved.

TULLOCH'S LETTER MADE PUBLIC

Charges of Irregularities in Postoffice Affairs Embodied in Letter to Postmaster General.

Washington, May 18.—The full text of the formal charges of irregularities in the administration of the postal affairs preferred by Seymour W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, is made public by Mr. Tulloch. The charges are embodied in a letter to Postmaster General Payne in response to the latter's request to be furnished any information that would substantiate published statements of Mr. Tulloch. Some of the matters complained of will be investigated immediately by the inspectors.

Mr. Tulloch in his letter says he is at the service of the postmaster general in rendering any further assistance that may be desired. Mr. Tulloch says that in all instances of irregularity and favoritism the proper allowances, records, vouchers, etc., were most carefully executed and kept, as a rule, and little information can be ascertained by their investigation; that the real facts behind the allowances and vouchers are not of record and are known to few—those interested, who will not, and others, clerks, who dare not talk. "For upwards of 19 years," the letter recites, "the conduct of affairs between the Washington city postoffice and the postoffice department was regular; then came the first break, the precursor of a system of allowances to the Washington postoffice on account of departmental expenditures which afterwards led to irregularities, abuses, extravagance and my removal as an obstacle on June 30, 1899."

Which Offers a Certain Solution of the Great Problem of Intemperance

One of the wisest philanthropies of this age of sirens and continual nerve depletion has recently been announced to the public, and it offers a unique solution to the urgent sociological problem of intemperance. Now that medical science has clearly demonstrated that alcohol and drug addiction are diseases, it is clearly logical that they must be fought by medical means. There is a successful treatment, which has been known to the medical profession of New York city for ten years, which not only quickly relieves the impetuous craving for a stimulant, but also has the advantage of toning the nervous system to its normal condition without any injury to the patient, without the use of hypodermic injections and in most cases without interfering seriously with the patient's daily occupation. This treatment of the Oppenheimer Institute is already known to the public through the remarkable array of prominent American men and women who are associated with the new movement to spread its benefits to every part of this land, planting branches in nearly every state of the Union. The Pittsburgh branch is located at 110 West North Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

In order to do the greatest good to the greatest number of unfortunate victims of drink and drug addiction, the directors of this movement are working toward the ultimate purpose of so equipping the institute that it will never be necessary for any patient applying for treatment anywhere in this country to be turned away on account of poverty or financial embarrassment. To this end a Department of Charities has been established in connection with the Institute and Rev. Dr. J. E. Price, one of the founders of the Epworth League, and for five years Dean of Ocean Grove Summer School of Theology, has left a large pastorate in Yonkers, N. Y., to take charge of this work as director of charities.

To aid in the work there has been organized a Women's National Auxiliary of the Oppenheimer Institute, of which Mrs. Dunlop-Hopkins, founder of the American Institute of Applied Design for Women, is president, and Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, one of the founders of the National Order of Kings' Daughters, is the vice president and secretary.

The specific objects of this auxiliary are to spread the knowledge of the institute to all classes and to all sections of the United States and of the world.

Spring fever—that feeble, languor, out-of-sorts sensation, indicates a lack of vital force. It also indicates the need of Paege's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil, a spring tonic that puts vigorous activity—life—energy into every fibre, nerve and muscle. Agreeable to take. Contains no grease.

We received another lot of fine cool summer Trousers, with belt to match. This week. They are very handsome.

WELLSVILLE

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR WELLSVILLE

EAST LIVERPOOL A. C. SUFFERS SECOND DEFEAT.

A Most Interesting Game Which Came Near Shutting Out One Side.

Again the East Liverpool Athletic club team went down to defeat before the Wellsville boys by a score of 7 to 1. It would have been a shutout if Webb had taken a little time and thrown to first, so Heckathorn could have at least touched him.

The second inning ended with the score 2 to 1 in favor of Wellsville. In the third, fourth and fifth the home team failed to score, but succeeded in getting two singles, Lang making both of them. Heckathorn made a sensational home run in the sixth. In the seventh Wellsville added one more run. The eighth proved to be a big inning, three runs being scored.

The visitors played hard and put up a stiff fight, but they could do nothing. The game was the most interesting that has been played here this season. The majority of the crowd were rooting for the home team, which no doubt helped to win the victory.

MORE YARD ROOM

Cleveland & Pittsburg Purchases Lots. Opposition to New Tracks.

The Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad company is still buying land in the West End for the enlargement of its yards. Last week three more lots were purchased in the Smith & Michaels addition.

Near the Vulcan brick works Contractor Stringer has a large force of men and teams busy filling in and grading for the immediate laying of tracks. Work has not rightly begun near Eighteenth street, but when it does there will be trouble for the citizens of Nevada street, as those on the eastern side are determined to keep the company from laying any more tracks across that street. A petition is being circulated to present to council to forbid the company adding more tracks.

CHILD SCALDED

Partially Upset a Boiler of Hot Water in Its Mother's Absence.

Vernie, the 13-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fulton, of Commerce street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, had a narrow escape from being scalded to death Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Fulton was preparing to wash and had a tub filled with boiling water on a chair in the kitchen. When she stepped out to get cold water the child went out into the kitchen and tried to upset the tub. Some water splashed out and scalded the child's left hand and arm, both limbs and about the abdomen. The child's screams brought the mother. Dr. Holland was at once called and made the little sufferer as comfortable as possible.

K. of C. Banquet.

Council No. 507, Knights of Columbus, held its annual banquet in the city hall Saturday evening. An interesting program of music and recita-

RAIDED A RESORT IN THE WEST END

OTHERWISE POLICE BUSINESS WOULD HAVE BEEN DULL.

Mrs. McIntosh And Several Visitors Placed Under Arrest Yesterday.

The police department came dangerously near drawing a blank Saturday night. It was the old reliable West End that saved them. That section of the city is always good for a pull and when business is dull it can be counted on for some action. Like Trojans the officers made a heroic charge, and it is always dollars to doughnuts that they will come out of the shuffle with a full hand. While the entire force was brooding over the empty appearance of the jail corridors one of them was struck suddenly with a thought of Jethro Hollow, and in a moment's time the faces of all brightened. They knew the gloom around the city hall was about to be broken.

Chief Wyman and Officers Aufderheide, Dunn and Mahoney were designated to do the work. They determined upon the well known resort of Lou McIntosh, possibly 300 yards from the Jethro bridge, and with stealth the quartet approached the house. They encountered no difficulty whatever in gaining admittance, except that Chief Wyman got a scratched eye in making his way through some underbrush. He was not very dead this morning, notwithstanding a report of a morning publication. Upon entering the dive the officers found the proprietress, Mrs. McIntosh, and seven loiterers, who gave their names as follows: Mademoiselles Flora William and Clara Mitchell; Ernest Howard, Samuel McFadden, Harry Wayne and Ernest Mitchell. The entire bunch placed forfeit money and will likely turn up for a hearing this evening. The proprietress will get probably the minimum, which is $10 and costs, and the loiterers $5 and costs.

There were two other arrests made, both of them last evening. Charles Mercer was landed by Officer McDermott. He was drunk and was endeavoring to get to his home in Chester when taken. His fine was $2 and costs.

Charles Brown, arrested by Officer Morris, had the pleasure of paying $1 because he accidentally fell asleep. He maintained that booze was not the primary cause of the sudden grasp of Morpheus, and was very indignant when a fine was imposed.

A lad giving his name as Dave Carr applied at the city hall last evening for sleeping quarters. In reply to a question as to his age he said he did not know, but said he was sure that he was six years old four years ago. He was given a night's lodging, and was turned over to the township trustees this morning. His home is in Brilliant.

LOVER SUICIDES BESIDE VICTIM

Murderer Calls on Brother and Tells of Crime and Intentions, but Little Attention Is Paid to Story—Recently Released from Penitentiary.

Johnstown, Pa., May 18.—A tragedy, caused by jealousy, and resulting in the loss of two lives, was enacted at Bairdstown, a little village in Westmoreland county.

The dead: Albert Palmer, aged 31 years. Mollie Beck, aged 30 years.

About 3 o'clock in the morning the neighborhood was aroused by the shrieks and cries of several women. Those who appeared on the scene witnessed an awful sight. In the rear room of the house in which the affair occurred lay the bodies of the persons named—the woman with a bullet hole through her heart and the man shot in the middle of the breast.

Palmer had been paying attention to the young woman for a couple of months and a number of times demanded that she marry him and that she quit keeping company with other men. Each time she refused. This was the cause of a number of bitter quarrels between them.

The mother of the woman says Palmer and the dead woman were on the porch and finally quarreled. They became so violent she started out to interfere. Just as she was about to step on the back porch Palmer drew his pistol and fired. Mollie Beck falling to the floor dead. Mrs. Beck made a step toward Palmer, when he pointed the pistol at her and fired. The bullet just grazing her head and entering the wall of the room where she stood.

He then left the house and went to the home of a brother, who lived but a short distance away and whom he awakened, telling him of what he had done and asking him to go along to the house of Mrs. Beck, adding that he intended to kill himself. The brother paid but little attention to what was told him, not even when the murderer bade him a tearful farewell and asked him to say goodbye to their parents, brothers and sisters.

Palmer then returned to the house where the girl was lying dead and dragged her body into the back room. He then laid down on the floor, placed the revolver to his breast and fired, the ball entering a point in the center of the chest and causing instant death. In this position the two bodies lay until an inquest was held.

The murderer had been discharged from the western penitentiary only a few months ago, where he was confined for having shot a colored man.

Killed by Their Prisoners.

Manila, May 18.—Captain Clough Overton, of the Fifteenth cavalry, and Private Harry Noyes, who were killed May 15 at Sucatan, Mindanao, met their death at the hands of insurgent prisoners whom they were guarding. Their companion in this duty, Private Hartlow, was wounded at the same time.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills, little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful."

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly,

PROSPEROUS YEAR FOR ODD FELLOWS

Those of Ohio Made An Excellent Showing in All Respects.

LODGES OF THIS COUNTY

Well to the Front in Increased Membership and Other Evidence of Prosperity—Interesting Statistics From Reports of the Grand Officers.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, May 18.—The Grand Lodge of Ohio, I. O. O. F., will convene in session at Ironton at 10 a. m. tomorrow. The sessions will last five days. Last year's meeting was held at Marion. The recently elected grand lodge officers will be inducted into office on Friday by the retiring grand master, J. M. Bever, of Columbus. They are as follows: Grand master, C. C. Favey, Washington, C. H.; deputy grand master, E. C. Boyce, Cincinnati; grand warden, Isaac M. Warden, Chillicothe; grand secretary, C. H. Lyman, Pomeroy; grand treasurer, Charles E. Niles, Findlay; grand representative, Ivor Hughes, Columbus.

The past year has been one of great prosperity for the order in Ohio, the gain in membership being almost 2,300, which is greater than that of any recent year. Reports filed show that the total membership on December 31, 1902, was 70,499, which later increases, it is believed, has swelled to fully 72,000. During 1902 the number of members relieved was 252 less than in 1901, the number of weeks' benefits decreased $6,541, all pointing to a satisfactory condition of the order throughout the state. Grand Master Bever says that the order is on a more substantial financial basis and upon a higher plane morally, than ever before. In the five largest cities, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo, Columbus and Dayton, where the order has sustained small losses during the past few years, there is a net gain of 138 for 1902. Akron, Youngstown, Canton and Springfield show a net gain of 72. Springfield shows a loss

WESTINGHOUSE PLAYED GOOD BALL

They Tried Hard But Lost to Local Y. M. C. A.'s by Score of 3 to 1.

CAPT. REARK SUCCESSFUL

In His Debut and Assurance is Given of Continuous Repetition Throughout the Season—The Strong Canton Marines Booked for a Series.

The Y. M. C. A.'s, under the captaincy of "Chick" Reark, played as nice a game as one would wish to see in West End park, Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the Westinghouse Athletic club by a score of 3 to 1. It was a game that installed interest in the fans at the very outset and throughout the nine innings enthusiasm was not abated.

It had been predicted that base ball would be dead in the city for a few weeks as a result of the exhibition the week before, but such was proven untrue when nearly 500 people filed through the turnstiles and filled the grand stand until there was not room for another person. The renewed interest rests solely on the wise choice of the management in selecting Reark as captain. Every one knows that a game in which he figures will be first class and they take delight in showing their appreciation of the fact. He did not have the lineup he intended, but made up the team with substitutes and they made a pretty showing.

"Happy" Reark, brother of the captain, led his face in a mask and called "Play ball" at 4 o'clock sharp. He umpired a fair game and neither team had cause for objections. It is likely that he will play the position through out the summer.

For three innings the teams seldom succeeded in reaching second base, only two getting as far as third. One of them was Wallace, when he landed one near the garden patch for a three bagger. In the fourth inning the game was started in earnest. Ferguson for the visitors was blind and went out on three shoves at the wind. J. Chambers knocked a hard one down to Gibson, who fumbled and allowed the runner to reach first. Chambers placed a fly in the hands of Reilly making two outs and only one man on base.

Ravey did the work. He hit the ball about as hard as a man could and it went bounding through the outfield like a scared hound. Reark and Reilly were both after it, but the latter stopped and the play following was the feature of the game. Ravey was running with the wind, made the three bases clean, was so jubilant over the awful lick that he lost his head and made a desperate attempt to have it a home run. When he reached the goal Peiper had the ball and applied the bug in great shape. Reark had fielded it, threw it to Reilly, who let Davis have it and the play was complete when Peiper did his work.

This was the initial and last run for the Pennsylvania lads. They were out in one, two, three order thereafter, notwithstanding that they piled up four more hits.

The locals won the game in the last half of the fourth. And it was done by a play of Winters, who repeated his actions of the game on May 2 with Leetsdale. He waited until there were two men on bases and placed a nice single, scoring both. Brown walked, but was caught at second by a

THROUGH OF BUYERS CONTINUE

Special Half Price Brings Many Patrons to B. C. Ansley.

The people of East Liverpool and vicinity appreciate the great advantage B. C. Ansley obtained for them, in getting the Dr. Howard company to allow the regular 50 cents size of Dr. Howard's specific, for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, to be sold at half price, 25 cents, and have bought hundreds of bottles.

Every bottle of the specific sold by B. C. Ansley has had his personal guarantee to return the money if it was not satisfactory, but none has come back, showing the wonderful curative power of this remedy.

It is only recently, on the persistent advice of B. C. Ansley that Dr. Howard's specific has been sold for less than 50 cents, but urged that it would be better to secure a quick introduction in East Liverpool in this way and the result has proven his good judgment.

If you have not already taken advantage of this chance to get a month's medical treatment for 25 cents, be sure to call at B. C. Ansley's today, for he has only a small amount of the specific on hand.

throw from the pitcher to first. Reilly made his second hit of the season and was followed by Davis, who rushed him to third on a single. Reark fouled out and with two men running, Winters took advantage of the situation. He shoved the ball with all energy and while it was being fielded Reilly and Davis crossed the plate. Winters was running as fast as he was able and hoped to make a three bagger out of it but was cut off from right to catcher to third. The next and last run scored by the locals was in the eighth. Davis was hit and scored two singles made by Reark and Winters.

Heffelfinger will be with the locals this week. He missed connections Saturday and will arrive in the city tomorrow. The series with the Canton Marines promises to be a good one and will no doubt draw big crowds. The Marines have played good ball all season. They defeated Wheeling. ### THE BOY WONDER IS DOING WELL

Maley Has Pitched Three Good Games for Morgantown, But Has Had No Support.

Larry Maley, with the West Virginia University team, has pitched three games this season. He was with them on their eastern trip and did remarkably well. From all reports the team did not take a game, but it was no fault of Maley's. A Morgantown paper says that the only two players on the team are Maley and Schriver, the two that are really not qualified to play, owing to their not being scholars at the college. The team has a western trip booked, but it is not known whether they will make it. Following is the tabulated score of the game with Yale played last week. It will be noted that Maley pitched under the name of Cunningham:

the following to say of "Gamey" Westlake, who at one time was a member of the famous Eclipse team of this city:

"Gamey" Westlake, who is playing with Corsicana, of the Texas league, seems to be catching as good ball this year as when he had his first year out in 1887. He has caught every game this season so far without an error or passed ball and his throwing is just as fine as ever. He is hitting like a hit for Powell's Pelicans, in 1901, when he stood seventh out of 135 hitters. He won the opening game at Fort Worth in the ninth inning with a hit and was presented with $50 by his Corsicana friends."

Intermediates vs. Brilliants.

The Intermediate Y. M. C. A. team defeated the West End Brilliants in an interesting game on Saturday. The Y. M. C. A. boys made 12 runs, 10 hits and 3 errors; the Brilliants 5 runs, 4 hits and 6 errors. The Y. M. C. A. lineup was: Mackey, catcher; Gibbons, pitcher; Davidson, short; Manley, first; Hamill, second; Watkins, third; S. Bocher, left; Wells, middle; R. Bucher, right. The Brilliants: Ruhe, catcher; Calhoun, pitcher; Myers, short; Duncan, first; Cook, second; Heady, third; Smith, left; Bond, middle; Brooks, right.

These are common expressions nowadays and the finger points that point with unflinching accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental, physical or sexual ruin, as it surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mr. B. L. Updegraff, of No. 169 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "As a general nerve tonic I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. I got at Larkins' drug store. At the time I got the pills I was feeling run down and nervous—not up to the mark in health and needed a tonic. The medicine did its work nicely and I regained tone, strength, life, energy and ambition again."

Shultz-Polk.

An impressive and beautiful ceremony was the wedding of Miss Louise Shultz, of Ripon, Wis., and Frederick Polk, of Pittsburgh, the brother of Wm. L. Polk, of this city, former proprietor of the Thompson House. Miss Shultz is well known in this city, having made many friends here when visiting. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the residence of William L. Polk, on Thompson avenue. Rev. J. G. Reinartz, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, using the impressive ring service of the Lutheran church, officiated. A number of the relatives and friends of the couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. Polk will reside in this city. They were the recipients of many congratulations.

NEW CHURCH EDIFICE

Discussed By Chester Presbyterians. Will Be Finest in the Town.

At the services conducted by the Chester Presbyterians yesterday afternoon there was some discussion regarding the proposed new church to be erected this summer by the people of that denomination. Architect A. W. Scott, of East Liverpool, has had the plans in hand for several days and yesterday was able to furnish the congregation with a picture of the exterior of the edifice. It is a beautiful structure, and the Presbyterians are very much pleased with the prospect of having a building so imposing. The plans of Mr. Scott were accepted. The estimated cost of the new church is $8,000, and it may reach $10,000 by the time it is ready for occupancy. The church officers now own three lots on Indiana avenue, near Fifth street, and here the building will be erected. The edifice will be by far the most valuable in the town, and will add greatly to the appearance of the suburb.

ANNIVERSARY DAY

Of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Celebrated By the New Cumberland Council.

The members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of New Cumberland are having a busy season just now and they will be assisted in the several functions by members of the order from Chester. Last evening the lodge celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the order by attending divine services at the Christian church. Rev. Mr. McCaffrey, pastor of the church, preached the sermon, which was a masterly effort and appropriate to the occasion.

Tomorrow evening the third annual lawn fete will be held on depot hill. A competent committee has arranged for the entertainment of those who attend and a fine time is anticipated. A beautiful bracelet with a watch attached will be awarded to the lady receiving the most money in a voting contest. A number of Chester Juniors will attend.

Fruit Crop All Right.

Agricultural authorities of Hancock county assert that, contrary to expectations, the fruit crops of the district have not been damaged by frost. There will be more apples this season than for years, the bloom on the trees instead of dropping off, remained fast and dried up, insuring an unusually large crop. One peculiarity of the fruit crop this year was that the peach, apple and plum trees were all in bloom at the same time, a circumstance not noted once in many years.

Most Men Want Stylish Hats.

Most men are more anxious to get the right style—a becoming hat—than they are to save a few pennies, but when best qualities and best styles form a combination, stylish men and frugal men are alike attracted. Such are the conditions here this season that all past records in hat displays are over-shadowed.
